CRIMSON FRESHMEN VICTORS

Second Varsity Also Leads Elis Over Finish Line in Next Contest. Big Race at 6.

By JACK VEIOCK.

New London, Ct., June 20.—Harvard won all preliminary honors in the annual regatta with Yale here today, its freshman and junior 'varsity eights beating out the Blue in both events after hard and pretty races.

The official time of the freshman race was: Harvard, 10:36 4-5; Yale, 10:37 3-5.

The official time of the second varsity race was: Harvard, 10:10 4-5; Yale, 10:11 4-5.

Great crowds of spectators lined both sides of the Thames and made the river a riotous ribbon of crimson and blue.

Harvard stock for the main event, the varsity race, scheduled for 6 p. m., took a jump upward as a result of its early victories.

HARVARD FRESHMEN WIN.

The freshman started the day's events, taking the river at 10:41. Harvard jumped into a half length's lead at the first quarter post, and held it until the 1-mile quarter, when the Blue spurted and cut down the Crimson lead to a quarter length. The unofficial time for the two miles was ten minutes and thirty-one seconds.

The junior varsity event was a hard-breaking one. The crews appeared nip-and-tuck all the way down the course, but in the last fifteen yards the Crimson oarsmen fairly

THREATEN STRIKE OF 3,000 CLOAKMAKERS

A strike of the 3,000 cloak and skirtmakers of Boston was predicted today by Leo Robbins, secretary of the joint board of the Cloak and Skirtmakers' Union. He declared that it was inevitable, unless the Boston Ladies' Garment Manufacturers' Association conceded to the demands of the joint board for a forty-four-hour week and double time for holiday labor.

NURSE LEARNS OF ANOTHER INDICTMENT

Mrs. Lundgren Hears for First Time Charge in Brother's Death by Poison

Lawrence, June 20.—Mrs. Bessie M. (Skeels) Lundgren, the nurse on trial here for the murder of Miss Florence Gay, a patient in her care, learned for the first time today that an indictment had been returned against her charging her with the murder, by poisoning, of her own brother, Albert J. Wilkins, of Bayonne, N. J.

Mrs. Skeels became aware of the existence of the second indictment when the court ruled that the defendant should remain in court while the question of the admissibility of certain evidence appertaining to the New Jersey case was being argued.

Daniel J. Daley, senior counsel for Mrs. Lundgren, told the court that

FRIEND IS GIVEN JAIL SENTENCE

Former Boston Broker Appeals From Sentence for Deserting Wife

Archer D. Friend former State street broker, was sentenced today in Newton court to three months in the House of Correction on a charge of deserting his wife, Mrs. Frances Niver Friend. He appealed.

The sentencing of Friend was the climax of a long legal battle over the marital affairs of the couple. Friend, who left this city several years ago, was brought back to Newton to face the desertion charge after a bitter fight on extradition in the California courts.

The Friends were married in Brookline, June 1, 1905, and until their domestic difficulties led to a separation they lived in Brookline and Winchester. They have two children, Dana Alden, born December 4, 1901, and Francis Stuart, born July 12, 1909.

CHARGE DEVASION.

Friend, a former member of the brokerage firm of Hodgett & Co., brought suit for divorce a year ago, alleging cruelty. The case was settled out of court and an agreement was made whereby Mrs. Friend was to have $2,500 alimony and the custody of the children, who are students at Abbott Academy. Later the alimony was increased to $5,000 a year.

At that time Mrs. Friend, in opposing the discontinuance of the suit, claimed that in April, 1918, her husband had taken up a residence in Reno, Nev., to evade the decrees of Massachusetts courts and to obtain a divorce. Since that time, she alleges, he had been lax in the payment of alimony.

MENTIONED BROOKLINE GIRL.

The various stages of the legal battle between Friend and his wife were characterized by sensational charges on both sides. Mrs. Friend charged that her husband had been unduly familiar with Miss Anna Stranahan of 1514 Beacon street, Brookline. He countered with the charge that she had repeatedly threatened to take his life. In court Mrs. Friend declared that any threats she may have uttered were made in the heat of argument and without serious intention.

Sherman L. Whipple headed the array of legal talent representing Mrs. Friend in court today. Attorney John F. Wright appeared for Friend.

ACCUSED BARNEY AS 'SLAYER'

"Confession" of Dillon Told by Officer at Trial; Counsel in Clash

That Herman L. Barney was accused by his alleged confederate, John F. Dillon, of firing the shot that killed Patrolman Charles E. Deininger of Chelsea was testified today in the trial of the two for murder. It was further testified that Dillon said Barney threw the gun away in a ploughed field.

The witness was Patrolman Walter A. Barden of Chelsea, who said Dillon made the confession implicating Barney after his arrest. The introduction of the testimony was fought out fiercely by counsel for both Dillon and Barney.

Counsel for Barney succeeded in temporarily excluding the testimony as affecting their client, who had not been present when the statement was made, but it was later put into the case for its bearing on Dillon's case. Patrolman Barden said that Dillon made the statement to Special Officer John Hartley.

Barden further testified that he saw the two men escaping in an automobile after the shooting, that he called on them to stop and fired three shots at them when they put on speed and drove by him.

For the second time in the trial an important government witness today failed to identify Herman L. Barney as one of the slayers. The same witness, The same witness, Special Officer John Hartley, absolutely identified John F. Dillon, Barney's co-defendant.

The failure of Hartley to so identify Barney as "the man in the front seat who was in the shooting was one of a number of sensations developing today, among them being the announcement that Albert L. Pfaff, an important witness for the prosecution, had disappeared.

Eddie Callahan was informed that Pfaff was missing since Monday and a writ of capias for his arrest was issued. Pfaff, who is a dealer in second-hand autos in Revere, is himself out on $5,500 bail awaiting sentence on a larceny charge.

Special Officer Hartley told the court that a man he identified as Dillon came plainly into view outside the Chelsea garage a few minutes before Deininger was shot, but that the other man, in the fur coat, he did not see distinctly. Joseph Tomasello, the driver of the car which it is alleged took Dillon and Barney to Chelsea, had previously failed to identify Barney.

Hartley testified that with Patro-

Distress Calls From Steamship 1,100 Miles at Sea

An naval radio station at Otter Cliff, Me., intercepted an S. O. S. call last night from an unknown steamship at 10:30, which stated that the steamship was in distress, with engines completely out of commission.

The message gave the location as latitude 44 and longitude [illegible] and the vessel was proceeding slowly under sails. The Boston light. Nothing further has been heard from the steamer. It is presumed here that steamships near at hand went to her assistance.

EX-POLICEMEN ARE SENTENCED AS THIEVES

Charles A. Doyle and Patrick H. McNamara, former Cambridge policemen, convicted in a lower court of receiving from thirty-eight merchants of Harvard Square a Harvard student, in extortion, were today rejected jail sentences today in Superior Criminal Court. Each was given a year in the House of Correction and was fined $100. McNamara was given thirty days and was fined $100.

Judge Dubuque, in passing sentence, said the practice of Harvard students of gratuitating police officers in their quarters was largely responsible for the plight of Doyle and McNamara. The court said that in view of the acquiescence of the other officials of the defendants prior to their arrest on May 7 he was inclined to treat their offence as lightly as possible, but that the law compelled him to inflict prison sentence. In the lower court the officers had been given terms of one year each.

A host of witnesses, including many public officials, testified to the high reputation of Doyle and McNamara. The latter is retired on a pension because of physical disability incurred in the line of duty. He was shot and seriously injured while attempting to arrest Harry Tracey, a bandit now serving a life term for murder. Doyle was formerly a traffic officer in Harvard square.

Rome, June 20.—The official publishes a photographic reproduction of an ultimatum claiming to prove that the Greek first army intended to capitulate prior to the Allied offensive in Macedonia, and then strike the Allies. The alleged plot failed as a result of the success of the offensive. The documents were secured from Bulgarian headquarters.

NATIONAL ASSEMBLY YIELDS; CABINET OVERTHROWN

By International News Service

London, June 20 (3:30 P. M.).—The German National Assembly, sitting at Weimar, is reported to have decided to sign the peace treaty, though the terms have been submitted to the peace committee of the Assembly for formal action. This decision, it was reported, was taken following the resignation of the Scheidemann cabinet, which announced its decision to quit office at 1 o'clock this morning following a lengthy session with the German peace delegation.

News of the downfall of the Scheidemann ministry reached London in dispatches from The Hague and later in reports from Paris. It is reported in peace conference circles at Paris that War Minister Gustave Noske, an avowed advocate of signing the treaty, will head the new German cabinet. This report is not officially confirmed.

The report that the National Assembly has decided to sign came in an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Paris, quoting advices from Weimar. The report was generally believed here in view of the resignation of the Scheidemann ministry, though it lacked official confirmation.

An International News Service dispatch from Paris also reported that a majority of the various political groups in the National Assembly at Weimar have voted in favor of signing the treaty.

It is believed here that there is now sufficient time for a new German government to name a new peace delegation which could proceed to Versailles and sign the treaty on Monday before the expiration of the allied ultimatum Monday night.

REPORT GERMAN NATIONAL ASSEMBLY VOTES TO ACCEPT TREATY

SCHEIDEMANN CABINET FALLS; NOSKE AT THE HELM

Four fifths of the Centrum party, controlling 88 of the 421 votes in the National Assembly, voted in favor of signing the treaty. The Democrats voted 56 to 2 against acceptance.

The Scheidemann ministry will continue to carry on the duties of the government until the new ministry is formed, said another Exchange dispatch from Paris.

Scheidemann and Foreign Minister von Brockdorff-Rantzau had committed themselves too far against acceptance of the treaty to remain in office, the dispatch said.

Earlier dispatches from Weimar today had corroborated International News Service dispatches of yesterday from Weimar, showing a majority of the cabinet favored signing.

Wilson Will Leave for Home the Night Germans Sign the Peace Treaty

By JOHN EDWIN NEVIN, Correspondent of the International News Service.

Paris, June 20.—President Wilson received the news of the overthrow of the Scheidemann ministry while he was at the Hotel Crillon this forenoon conferring with the American peace delegation. He regarded it as an indication that the Germans would sign the treaty.

The President told the delegation that if the Germans signed he would leave for America on the same night if they refuse he will leave a day or two after their decision is made known.

The American peace delegation views the Italian developments optimistically, believing that Francesco Nitti, former minister of finance who is said to be slated to succeed the Orlando, is more open to compromise. They are hopeful of a speedy settlement of the Adriatic question. It is believed here that Orlando's failure to impress the peace conference when he returned home after the controversy with President Wilson caused him loss of prestige in Italy and he was largely responsible for his downfall.

Luzzatti or Tittoni May Succeed Orlando as Italian Premier

Exclusive Cable to the International News Service from Il Secolo, Milan.

Rome, June 20.—King Victor Emanuel is unlikely to retain the Orlando ministry in office following the overwhelming vote against Orlando in the chamber yesterday. Signor Luzzatti and Signor Tittoni are being mentioned as probable successors of Orlando.

A popular demonstration in favor of Orlando occurred in the streets of Rome last night, following the fall of the ministry. The crowd shouted "Viva Fiume," and "Down with Giolitti and Nitti."

Giolitti and Nitti are among the Socialist leaders who were among Orlando's most bitter opponents.

Yankee, British and French Troops Move on Rhine Bridgeheads

By International News Service.

London, June 20.—American, British and French troops are today moving forward to the outer bridgeheads zones in Germany, preparatory to an advance if Germany fails to sign, the Times stated today.

The 4th American Division, which was handed in its equipment and prepared to start for the United States, has been re-equipped. By tomorrow the Americans will have three divisions ready to leave the front line for the interior of Germany.

If the Germans fail to sign, the American army will advance on a thirty-seven-mile front in direction of Prussian Cassel. The 1st and 2nd American divisions will move up the Sayn Valley.

MAJOR JOHN P. REYNOLDS OF SALEM DEAD, AGED 80

Salem, June 20.—Major John P. Reynolds, last of the charter members of Post 24 G. A. R., whose great grandfather, Elijah Sanderson, was one of the Lexington "Minute Men" in the Revolutionary War, died at his home here today aged eighty years. During the Civil War he was captain of a 100th Massachusetts Regiment nominally, but was detailed as an employe of the adjutant-general's office after continuous service twenty-eight years. He is survived by a son, Captain Augustus H. Reynolds of Boston, and two daughters, Miss Ruth Reynolds and Mrs. Tyler W. Jonas of Roslindale.

ATTLEBORO PATROLMAN GETS DEATH THREAT

Attleboro, June 20.—"Bolshevike" have sent a postcard to Patrolman John J. Kelly, who covers the Dodgeville section of this city, threatening him with death, special officer Maraland has also been detailed on the case. The following is the inscription upon the card:

"Be careful, some night you and Kelly will have a rope hung up to your nose (some night you will be sorry you interfered with the work of that man). Now it is up to you."

Officers Kelly and Maraland are not frightened and will continue on their jobs.

TO "BIG BROTHER" THEIR COUSINS FROM THE FARM

St. Louis, Mo., June 20.—The people of St. Louis should "big brother" the people of rural communities in this city's trade territory by extending the right hand of good fellowship and cooperation, declared Frank H. White of Chicago, managing director of the Agricultural Publishers' Association, in an address before the Advertising Club here.

"We want to be a nation of homes," said White, "and homes must be in the country. We people in the cities are city dwellers. We live in a hurry in the wall and not as Americans ought to live."

LAWRENCE MAN HURT WHEN AUTO TURNS OVER

Lawrence, June 20.—Frank Hannon, No. 769 Essex street, was at the Lawrence General Hospital as a result of serious injuries received in an automobile accident at the corner of Salem and Depot streets, North Andover. An auto truck, owned and operated by Louis H. McAloon was struck by a four-passenger touring car owned and operated by Miss Zetta Dunn, principal of the Union Grammar School. Hannon was an occupant of the truck, which was overturned.

HELD AT AMESBURY FOR PORTLAND AUTO THEFT

Amesbury, June 20.—Charged with the larceny of an automobile the property of Charles Locke of Portland, Robert H. Swett, nineteen, of Portland, a sailor in the United States navy, was held in $1,500 in court here today. In default of bail he was committed to Salem jail. Swett arrived in Amesbury in the car last Wednesday. It took the machine to a local garage for repairs. It is alleged that he afterwards also took the car of C. E. Hines of this place to another local garage for repairs.

AIR FLEET READY TO INVADE GERMANY

Foch to Have Free Hand After Next Monday Night's Crisis

By EARL C. REEVES, International News Service Staff Correspondent.

London, June 20.—With the nights of terror when German Zeppelins and Gothas hurled bombs upon their defenceless women and children fresh in their minds, Londoners read today with keen pleasure reports of allied aerial, naval and military preparations to carry the war into the heart of Germany if the Germans refuse to sign.

The manoeuvres of the monster British dirigibles, R-33 and R-34, have particularly seized hold on the popular imagination, and many a Londoner today echoed the wish expressed by a little Cockney:

"I 'ope they ride over and throw a few plums down on the Huns in Berlin."

GREAT FORCES MOBILIZED.

There are evidences of an overpowering aerial mobilization on the Rhine. The R-33 is ready to start for Kiel and the R-34, which was made ready for the flight to America, has been describing great circles over the North Sea. When she flew along the coast of Denmark, Danish airman flew out from Copenhagen to greet her.

Two British cruisers and nine destroyers have arrived at Copenhagen, en route for the Baltic, and the Jutlandish and other naval vessels are reported en route to lay the blockade of Germany, if the decision taken at Weimar is unfavorable. The loading of vessels destined for Germany has been stopped. Mine layers are refitting with fresh cargoes of mines and the crews of trawlers and mine sweepers have been recalled to duty.

Marshal Foch, according to Paris reports, has received from the allies sole charge of all relations with Germany beginning the expiration of the ultimatum next Monday night. This is taken to indicate that no further concessions will be granted. It is believed that Foch's command extends to include the Czecho-Slovak, Rumanian and Polish armies.

LITTLE BETTING ON RESULT.

Little wagering is going on in London over the decision to be taken at Weimar. Says the Daily Mail:

"Not a single tout is even able to give 'feedbox' tips on which betting is possible in today's greatest gamble."

Lloyds and the Royal Exchange are silent when asked for odds. Likewise the brokerage houses, usually willing to wager on anything, are shy. Even in the Hotel Savoy and bars in sporting clubs the only wagers are bottles of champagne, drinks or small sums at 10 to 8 that Germany will sign.

One Londoner, who has frequently risked thousands on the word of a stableboy, put it this way today:

"I'm afraid of the shifting decisions of the Big Four. Who'd bet on a race where there was no dope?"

TO FORM ROXBURY POST OF AMERICAN LEGION

A Roxbury post of the American Legion will be formed tonight in Roxbury Court House, according to the announcement of William H. Keogh, secretary of the committee in charge. All World War veterans are invited to be present. The meeting will open at 8 o'clock.

300 Naval Prisoners Will Be Released by Osborne

Portsmouth, N. H., June 20.—Three hundred inmates of the United States Naval Prison here were notified today that through the intercession of Lieutenant-Commander Thomas Mott Osborne, commandant of the prison, they will be released within the next week by order of the Secretary of the Navy.

Seventy of the men will be restored to duty and given a clean slate in the service. The remaining 230, including representatives from every state in the Union, will be given dishonorable discharges from the service, the character of their offences being such that the navy does not wish them to remain in the ranks.

PHELAN URGES EXCLUSION OF JAPANESE

California Senator Regards Them as "Locusts, Pests, Enemies to Be Shunned"

By International News Service.

Washington, June 20.—Urging the exclusion of Japanese immigrants from the United States under legislation similar to the Chinese exclusion law, Senator Phelan of California opposed before the House Immigration Committee today the application of any per cent. plan for admission of Japanese immigrants based on the number already in the country.

"Continued immigration of Japanese to California means the death of that State," he declared.

"Our State authorities have encouraged Eastern colonizations, but Eastern men will not come and locate their families where Japanese are their neighbors. I regard the Japanese in the economic life as locusts, pests, enemies, to be shunned."

TECHNOLOGY PLANNING FOR AN ENGINEER UNIT

Plans are under way for an engineer unit of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps at Technology. Major Walter McI. Wolf, engineers, U. S. A., has been sent to the institute by the government and will arrange a course for this branch of the military department at Technology. It is hoped that the unit may be started next Fall. Allowance similar to that in other R. O. T. C. units at the institute for subsistence and commutation will be made to the men in this branch.

HAS FORCED LANDING IN FLIGHT TO DEVENS

Camp Devens, Ayer, June 20.—Following a spectacular flight from Hazlehurst, Long Island, N. Y., during which a broken propeller forced him to descend in a wheat field at Middleton, Ct., Lieutenant Reuben C. Moffatt, an army aviator, arrived here today to assist in the Air Service drive for recruits.

LLOYD GEORGE IS REBUKED BY IRISH

Walsh and Dunne Resent Failure of Premier to Protest Abuse

By WILLIAM J. BUTLER, Universal Service Staff Correspondent.

Paris, June 20.—Referring to the charges of British atrocities in Ireland which have been filed with President Wilson by Frank P. Walsh and Edward F. Dunne, the latter expressed surprise at "the torrent of vituperation and abuse with which we are being assailed by portions of the English press and certain officials implicated in the atrocities without a word of protest from the British Prime Minister."

Premier Lloyd George Means, Walsh and Dunne declare, Invited them to make an investigation through the whole of Ireland. Their statement further says:

"Had the investigators made merely a perfunctory investigation, and refused to visit the jails and the homes of surviving relatives of the Republicans who had been killed, and had they ignored the statements of the living victims of the cruelties uncovered, we have no doubt Lloyd George and the English officials would have been satisfied with the investigation which the Prime Minister initiated.

LIGHT ON ENGLISH "JUSTICE."

"We believe that in America this campaign of personal vituperation will be taken as illustrative of the much boasted English justice and the Britons' love of fair play.

"We shall, therefore, take no notice of such unfair methods of attack. No amount of personal vilification will deter us from our purpose of exposing these atrocities to the world, now that they have been proven to us by personal observation and undisputed statements of men and women of the loftiest repute.

"If Britain wishes to recover the respect of the world she will at once agree to the appointment of a commission of inquiry in the impartial manner which we have suggested.

"If she does not, then mankind must find her guilty of the horrible excesses with which she is so specifically charged."

BODIES OF VICTIMS KEPT.

Mr. Walsh today said to Universal Service:

"I was in London when they returned the body of Edith Cavell and paid her last respects to this martyr. Yet, they deny this very privilege to the loved sons of their Irish victims.

"Mrs. Sheehy-Skeffington, widow of the Dublin editor killed during the Easter rebellion, never saw the body of her murdered husband. After mutilating his corpse, the British buried it quickly, denying his widow the privilege of decent burial with the sacred rites of the old church.

"In America we send to the relatives the bodies even of the worst criminals we electrocute or hang.

"I have absolute proof and names in the cases of all British brutalities we charge."

Mr. Dunne said he has photographs showing English atrocities in the past two months upon British subjects in parts of the world other than Ireland, showing how they "tie and brutally lash and shoot down their helpless victims."

BAKER AND WIFE PLEAD NOT GUILTY IN DEATH OF WESTBORO MAN

'BABY DOLL' CALM IN COURT

Charged With First Degree Murder, Both Waive Examination

Westboro, June 20.—Harry ("Sneaks") Baker and his wife, "Baby Doll" Baker, arrested in Maine for the killing of Dwight P. Chapman, seventy-nine-year-old G. A. R. veteran of this town, were jointly arraigned today on the charge of first degree murder before Judge William E. Fowler in the First District Court.

Both pleaded not guilty, waived hearings and were bound over without bail for the Worcester County Grand Jury, which meets on the third Monday in August.

"BABY DOLL" KEEPS HEAD.

Mrs. Baker was the "man" of the two, calm and self-possessed and ever anxious to soothe her more timid and excitable husband. Baker wore a blue suit, a fresh collar and a loud green tie. Mrs. Baker looked attractive in a green Summer dress and a blue sailor straw hat. They have been married only eighteen months, and came here from the West seeking employment in the Westboro Hospital as attendants, lodged at the veterans' home, and now face capital charges cooped in cells in the Worcester jail and directly implicated by the alleged confession of the husband.

The accused couple were brought from Worcester today by Sheriff Abbott Richardson, State officers Robert E. Molt and Edward Mc Carthy and Chief of Police William E. Johnson of Westboro.

They stood up while Clerk Francis X. Reilly read the complaints charging them jointly with assaulting and beating Chapman with intent to cause his death.

BOTH DENY GUILT.

Baker was first asked to plead. Trembling violently and twitching his cap he replied in almost inaudible tones:

"Not guilty and I waive a hearing."

In clear, firm voice Mrs. Baker said:

"I am not guilty and I waive a hearing."

They were not represented by counsel today. Attorney D. F. O'Connell of Worcester is likely to be retained in their behalf by their brother. Baker's two sisters are expected hourly from York, Me.

The proceedings lasted only a few minutes. Baker and his wife were taken to the judge's lobby after the arraignment. Baker's nervousness increased there, but he did not cry as he did yesterday during his confession. Mrs. Baker greeted acquaintances and smiled. She kissed her husband several times and endeavored to comfort him by patting his hair and whispering words of encouragement.

BAKER TAKES BLAME.

Baker has shouldered all the blame in an effort to exonerate his wife from any responsibility, but the attitude of the authorities and the tangle of circumstances clearly indicated that she would have to pass through grand jury channels and perhaps beyond at the side of her husband in the disposition of the case.

Baker has confessed to the police that he beat the aged man to death with a hammer, to avenge an insult to his wife. District Attorney Edward T. Esty is checking up the details of this confession.

The fate of the young wife depends to a large measure on the accuracy and veracity of her husband's confession. Baker asserts, the police claim, that his wife knew nothing of his attack on the aged man until after the latter's death.

Baker's story is that he was led to attack Chapman by the latter's indecent proposals to his wife and that he killed the old man in a heat of fury.

"I'll stick to 'Daddy' through everything," is the declaration of the wife, who seems the more collected of the two in their hour of trouble.

If Baker's confession, to the effect that his young wife knew nothing of the slaying of Chapman until after its consummation, proves to be a fact, the young wife will be freed, unless it can be shown that she conspired to aid her husband in escaping after the deed was committed.

If the confession is shown to be a fact it is not improbable that Baker himself will be charged with second degree murder.

In jail here the young couple obtained the prison food and spent their last cash, amounting to a mere $1.50, for meals from an outside restaurant. Mrs. Baker ate supper in company with her husband.

Baker's confession was made in the presence of his wife. She sat a few feet away, sobbing and with twitching hands, while her frail-looking husband told State Police officer Robert E. Holt of Worcester, and Chief William Johnson of the Westboro police, his tale of how Chapman was murdered.

BAKER BREAKS DOWN.

Baker, during his confession broke down and wept. As he repeated his story of punching the aged man's face, and later of pummelling him with a hammer, Baker sobbed frequently, and at times was so overcome that he could barely continue his story.

Mrs. Baker was spokesman, and it was she who begged cigarettes for her husband and asked for other comforts, which he seemed too overcome to request.

The police admit that two facts they have uncovered in their investigation of the case point to the truth of Baker's confession. The husband of the little blonde was found to have so had a temper that he was discharged from a position in Jamesburg, N. J., for striking a man in a fit of temper, and that Chapman's insulting talk to women is said to have been common talk around Westboro.

200-POUND WIFE BEATER BEGINS JAIL SENTENCE

Worcester, June 20.—John Taleska, forty-four, of No. 40 Ellsworth street, weighing 200 pounds, is today spending his first day in jail, where he has been sentenced for two months for beating his wife, a frail woman, who testified in Central District Court that John had frequently beaten her

Prince and Princess Murat to Be Guests at Newport Dinner

By CHOLLY KNICKERBOCKER.

Registered U. S. Patent Office.

Newport, June 20.—Society's favorite Benjamin Pratt is evidently a firm believer in preparedness.

Mrs. Pratt, whom the society gossips insist will soon be Mrs. Preston Gibson, can always be depended upon to lend things, and she certainly is ahead of the other Newport hostesses by announcing a dinner party for the night of August 18. Some may think it a bit early to arrange social events for August, but this is to be a gay season in Newport, and the hostess who waits is certain to be lost.

The dinner party on August 18 will be in honor of no less personages than the Prince and Princess Murat of Paris, who will be Mrs. Pratt's guests at that time. After the dinner party, which will be quite large, additional guests will arrive for the dance, and as the Prince of Wales is scheduled to be in Newport about the same time, no one would be surprised if Mrs. Pratt also captured him as an "extra added attraction," so to speak.

Both the Prince and Princess Murat are exceedingly popular with the Newport colony, many of the foremost members of which clan having been entertained by them in the French capital. They will, no doubt, have a busy time during their stay with Mrs. Pratt.

275 STRIKE IN SALEM FOR 44 HOURS AND SAME PAY

Salem, June 20.—Because of the refusal of three companies to grant a demand of a 44-hour week without a reduction in pay, 275 men decided to went out on strike today. The Turner Tanning Company is most affected by the walkout, 200 men having quit that shop. At the Locke Regulator Company twenty-five went out and fifty at the Atwood and Morrill Company.

The police admit that two facts they have uncovered in their investigation of the case point to the truth of Baker's confession. The husband of the little blonde was found to have so had a temper that he was discharged from a position in Jamesburg, N. J., for striking a man in a fit of temper, and that Chapman's insulting talk to women is said to have been common talk around Westboro.

CARMEN ON BAY STATE VOTE TO STRIKE

Counting of Ballots Indicates General Tieup of System by Sunday

Unless the grievances of the striking Lowell and Woburn carmen are adjusted, the entire system of the Eastern Massachusetts Railway Company, formerly the Bay State Street Railway, will be tied up by a strike of cities and towns on 1,200 miles of lines between Nashua, N. H., and Newport, R. I., are involved.

Strike votes are being counted today at the Quincy House, twelve of the eighteen locals of the Carmen's Union having cast their ballots last night.

RESULT OF THE VOTING.

Reports this morning indicated a vote to strike at the following places: Quincy, Brockton, Lynn, Chelsea, Haverhill, Lawrence and Reading.

Some 4,500 employes will be affected by the strike, and the number of street cars affected will run into the thousands.

In a meeting which lasted until two o'clock this morning, Local 249, at Lyceum Hall, Reading, voted to strike, but set no date for the action.

Local 252 of Quincy voted to strike at midnight Saturday. Originally this local voted to strike today, but the members were led to reconsider the action by telephone.

Local 240 of Chelsea voted to strike at 4 o'clock Saturday morning. Less than a dozen members of this local voted against the strike.

John M. Reardon of the executive board of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employes of America is in conference with International President W. D. Mahon at Atlantic City.

MAHON TAKES CHARGE.

President Mahon is in Boston today to take charge of the situation. John H. Reardon of Worcester, general executive board member of the association, spent a number of hours reporting on the situation to Mr. Mahon in Atlantic city.

What report Reardon made they refused to disclose, but President Mahon, before leaving for Boston, let it be known that he will not be a party to any strike unless the men are in the right.

"I am not going to be a party to any strike unless the men are in the right," he said. "I am not going to be a party to any strike unless the men are in the right."

BARNEY TRIAL WITNESS IS MISSING

Policeman Walter Harden, on was in the Tremont garage where the shooting took place late in the afternoon and early in the evening of February 13, later then were joined by special officers Sheehan and Carter of the Boston police department.

In direct testimony he stated that shortly after a motor boat was sighted in the middle of the channel and then drew ahead. In about fifteen minutes from his position in the garage he saw two men approaching, one bearing a fur overcoat, the other a dark coat.

The man in the dark coat stopped to collect from the window and seemed to be looking in. Now Fairfield man (Deininger noted), heard the shot, ran out and himself fired two shots at the fleeing man, but they escaped in the dark.

His story was substantially as related in the Boston American at the time of the shooting. He said that he was going beside a Ford car, with a wagon and a motorcycle, which was slightly in advance with the tendency of special officer Sheehan. Bartley said that when he got into the car he noticed a man coming about fourteen feet from the door.

Judge Callahan observing to Assistant District Attorney Fairfield that he supposed some time the prosecution would introduce evidence about the shooting, Fairfield replied that he supposed some time the defense would introduce evidence about the shooting.

Before the night of the shooting, said Bartley was asked about a street car on the corner of Washington road, and allowed some one outside. He did not inside the garage. There is no information proceeded.

Q—Did you get a view of the man in the fur coat? A—I had a side view of his face.

Q—Have you recognized among that night anybody as the party who wore the fur coat. A—No sir.

Attorney Joaquin then examined.

PREPARED TO SHOOT.

Q—When did you first see the automobile? A—About fifteen minutes before the trouble.

Q—What time did the trouble happen? A—Between 4:15 and 4:30.

Q—Was it then broken in the garage at the time? A—Yes sir.

There followed a series of questions as to where the car first stopped and when it was moved. Bartley stated that it was fifteen minutes after the shooting that he saw that the gasoline approached the garage.

Q—Did you have your revolver out? A—No, sir, I had it in my coat-head overhead pocket with my hand inside it.

He also stated that he produced a thirty-eight calibre revolver. Cross-examined as to the man who stopped outside the window and looked in, he said did not pass into the car. He stood there and looked down and shot he heard a sort of scraping at the window that might have been that somebody was peering in.

Q—Where were the men when you saw them? A—They were standing together with the man in the fur coat slightly in the rear.

Q—And did you hear after you crouched down? A—I heard a noise as the same as if somebody was trying to open it.

Q—Was the door locked? A—I don't think so.

Witness could not say whether Patrolman Deininger pushed the door open on the way out or whether it was drawn open from without.

Q—How long after you saw the door open and Patrolman Deininger go out was it before you went out? A—After I heard two shots.

Q—You saw Deininger go through the door fast? A—Yes, he went through fast.

FOUND MAN ON ROAD.

Q—Describe what you saw after you went through the door? A—I saw a man long in the road and two men running down Winthrop road.

Q—Did you think when you heard the shot that officer Deininger had shot somebody? A—Yes, sir.

Q—How far away were the men when you shot at them? A—They were within twenty-five or thirty feet of Washington avenue.

Q—Were they together? A—No, sir, Dillon was in the lead.

Q—Did you shoot at the man in the fur coat? A—Yes, sir.

Bartley stated that he was joined by Harden and this searched the fields and highways in the vicinity after the men got out of sight, but the hair succeeded in finding them.

Woman Is Judged By Her Hair

Hair Petrole Brings Out Hidden Beauty

Woman's beauty is judged by her hair; but often the natural beauty, perhaps hidden by neglect, can easily be developed by proper use of treatment. You will be surprised at the manner the natural beauty is intensified and the wonderful change in the texture of the hair that comes from the use of Noonan's Hair Petrole.

This preparation is not a dye, or a tonic in the ordinary sense, but an antiseptic stimulating agent which tends to assist nature in restoring the healthy condition of the scalp, stimulating the hair follicles and acting as an antiseptic. The hair takes on new life, which shows after a few applications.

Ladies' hair dressers apply Noonan's Hair Petrole, or it may be secured at druggists, department stores and barbers everywhere. Price $1.00 a bottle, or direct from the manufacturers, T. Noonan & Sons, 18 Portland St., Boston. Tell your druggist he can get it for you from his wholesaler.

Barbers report that men are just as enthusiastic about Noonan's Hair Petrole as the women are, and apply it for men at fifteen cents an application.

Potatoes Cheaper, Cabbage Abundant in Market

Potatoes, new and old, are getting cheaper. This is one of the cheering facts made known in the market guide published today by the City Market Reporting Service.

Gallivan Declares Burleson Wrecked Public Ownership

Washington, June 20.—Postmaster-General Burleson has destroyed all hope of government ownership of public utilities, Representative Gallivan, Democrat, of Massachusetts, declared on the floor of the House in the course of a bitter attack upon that official.

Declaring that unrest among the toilers is breeding radicalism, Gallivan said:

"You don't have to look far to find the main cause—misguided policies in Washington which clothed with autocratic powers during the war, now have their heads turned."

"The man responsible," he continued, "is the Postmaster-General, one of the greatest autocrats, who has wrecked the postal system, and is now wrecking the telegraph and telephone systems."

ISSUE WARRANTS FOR 124 ARRESTS AT WINNIPEG

Winnipeg, Man., June 20.—It was reported here that 124 warrants have been issued for the arrest of leaders in the Winnipeg general strike (information from official sources however, was lacking).

The Labor News declared that a big reception is to be arranged for the strike leaders now under arrest on charges of seditious utterances when they were released on bail. A street car service is proceeding without interruption.

he feared his client would suffer a nervous collapse. If she was forced to undergo the ordeal of listening to the additional charge of the murder of her brother. The court ruled, however, that Mrs. Lonergan must remain in court.

"This is an attempt to terrorize the prisoner," said Attorney Fay, while Attorney-General Henry C. Attwill was arguing against a motion to exclude Mrs. Lonergan from the courtroom while the question was being argued.

While counsel were discussing the matter of the admissibility of the New Jersey evidence, Attorney Daley suddenly called the attention of the court to the fact that the members of the jury, who had been excluded from the courtroom temporarily, were in the hallway and clearly within earshot of Mr. Attwill and himself.

FOUR HURT IN AUTO CRASH AT FOREST HILLS

The woman was seriously injured and three other people painfully cut, when the automobile in which they were riding was struck by an auto truck owned by Henry Griffin Company of No. 410 Albany street, and operated by William J. Keeley, in front of the Forest Hills Hospital on Morton street, Forest Hills.

Both cars were badly damaged and Mrs. Minnie Griffen of No. 15 Hammond street, Roxbury, received injuries from which she may lose her left arm. The others injured were Miss Kelley, Jeannette Kelley, three-year-old daughter, and Eugene Keller all receiving cuts about the head and face.

SCHOLARS STRIKE WHEN PRINCIPAL IS OUSTED

Knoxville, Tenn., June 20.—A majority of the city board of education having refused to accede to the request of a mass meeting of citizens of Knoxville and the people of Park City in particular to re-elect Professor J. R. Lowry as principal of the Park City High School, Professor Lowry is now being urged by his friends to become a candidate for Mayor or member of the commission. Professor Lowry has been a teacher here for a period of a century. No charges were made against him. Pupils went on a strike to demand his reinstatement.

More Honor for York

Knoxville, Tenn., June 20.—The Tennessee legislature has asked that Sergeant Alvin C. York, greatest hero of the world war be granted a second, while Governor A. H. Roberts will personally ask that York participate in the Knoxville celebration at Nashville. All Tennessee is honoring York. His home is at Pall Mall, Fentress county.

COFFEE JOINS IN RISE OF PRICES

Fish Day Sees Sea Food Also in the General Upward Trend

Boston's most popular breakfast table beverage has joined the upward trend of food prices. Today coffee is selling from one to seven cents a pound higher, retailing at between 28 and 57 cents the pound.

Fish day finds cod, flounders and haddock at 10 cents a pound; mackerel, 12 cents; butterfish, finnan haddie, lemon sole and turbot, 15 cents, halibut and smelts, 25 cents; Maine salmon, 40 cents; bluefish, 25 cents, and lobsters, 50 to 60 cents a pound.

The best grade of the once lowly prune sells at 39 cents a pound. Only two grades are procurable in any quantity, and these may not be obtainable long. A cheaper grade is 7 cents less.

New potatoes sell at 5 cents a pound. Old potatoes are reduced from 45 to 48 cents a peck. The supply of green vegetables in the market is good and prices are cheaper.

Melons are plentiful from California at 15 cents each, with the promise of lower prices soon. Strawberries are at their best and cheapest just now at 30 cents and 35 cents and up to 50 cents for a quart basket.

Hennery eggs increased at wholesale and today's retail prices are 67 to 70 cents a dozen. Within a week it is expected that native eggs will be 72 to 75 cents a dozen. Fresh eastern eggs are 65 cents, and the best western eggs are 55 cents a dozen.

Vermont tub butter is 60 to 65 cents a pound. Spring lamb is the same at 43 cents a pound, sirloin roast is 60 cents, the first is also 60 cents, and a rump roast 50 cents a pound. Meats generally are not changed. Fowl is high, bringing 48 to 50 cents a pound.

DR. THAYER LECTURES ON CITIZENSHIP AT B. U.

Dr. William Roscoe Thayer of Cambridge addressed the conference on United States Citizenship today at the College of Liberal Arts of Boston University. Under the recent endowment of George H. Maxwell, a trustee of Boston University, a chair of United States citizenship has been founded and the first professorship has been given to Dr. Frederick A. Cleveland of Norwood.

The purpose of the meeting was to discuss methods of teaching United States citizenship and members of the State Board of Education, high school principals, teachers, city superintendents, and members of school committees in Greater Boston and adjacent towns expressed their views at the round table conference at the Hotel Vendome.

B. U. SENIORS HOLD LIVELY PROM AT AUBURNDALE

Red leather card cases with the Boston University seal in gilt were the souvenir dance orders at the Senior Prom of the class of 1919 of the College of Liberal Arts at Auburndale. About seventy-five couples attended the affair which was the "one night" for the graduating class.

Miss Dascolina M. Agrafio of Arlington was chairman of the prom committee. A number of the seniors and their escorts remained overnight at the Woodland Park Hotel, where the prom was held, and which is being occupied by Boston University during Commencement Week.

NORTH ADAMS COUPLE IN RUNAWAY MARRIAGE

North Adams, June 20.—After asking the assistance of the local police to locate their sixteen-yearold daughter, Miss Lyla Ballard, who had been missing for thirty-six hours, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ballard of South State street, received a telegram from Albany, N. Y., containing the information that their daughter was married in that city to Lawrence Gardner of State street, this city. The message said the newlyweds will be home today. Parental forgiveness has been promised.

NEW GUARDS TO WATCH DEVENS AT NIGHT

Medal Awaits Missing Hero; Gen. McCain Proclaims Innocence of Nace

Camp Devens, Ayer, June 20.—To guard property and drive off intruders during the night, twenty-one civilian watchmen will be appointed in this cantonment by command of Major-General McCain. The men will come under the supervision of Lieutenant C. H. Stewart of the 26th Infantry, and will be empowered to make arrests.

Heretofore this work has been performed by the Provost Guard, members of which, it is understood, will be discharged from the service shortly.

A roster of the officers of this camp totals 282, including Major-General McCain and Brigadier-General Michael J. Lenihan.

A committee representing Rockville, Ct., has requested the camp officials to loan them the ambulance, donated to the army following the declaration of war and now undergoing repairs in the cantonment garage, for use in a parade in that city July 4.

All soldiers quartered here who live in Pawtucket or Central Falls, R. I., will be granted a forty-eight-hour furlough Saturday, to enable them to participate in the historic exercises in that district on Sunday.

MEDAL AWAITS HERO.

A French Croix de Guerre reached here today for sergeant Karl V. West, C Co., 23d Infantry, accompanied by a citation in which mention is made that West displayed the utmost disregard for danger. His present address is unknown and unless he can be found the cross and citation will be returned to the war department.

Two court martials were made public in orders today. Private Henry VanHorn, headquarters Company, 26th Infantry, was sentenced to three months at hard labor and to forfeit his pay for a like period. He was found guilty of stealing $55 from Private Jesse E. Gifford, Headquarters Company 26th Infantry, April 26. He pleaded not guilty.

Private Arthur Lemay, Casual Detachment, Depot Brigade, will be dishonorably discharged from the service, forfeit all pay and allowances due or to become due, and serve six months at hard labor. He was absent without leave from his organization from December 31 to April 23, when he surrended at headquarters, Northeastern Department. He will serve his sentence at Fort Jay.

Several overseas men reported to the authorities here that they lost considerable money playing cards in a club not far from the Dudley street elevated station, Roxbury, and gave that as a reason for overstaying their leave of absence. Agents of the Department of Justice will, it is understood, investigate the matter.

WILL DISCHARGE NACE.

Small detachments of overseas men from different camps arrived today and will be discharged tomorrow.

Pontoon bridges have been placed across Robbins Pond to enable officers to bathe there during the hot weather.

Private Frank E. Nace, hero of the most sensational series of adventures on this side of the water during the war, will be discharged from service soon. Nace was found not guilty of desertion and absence without leave from his outfit, the 304st Field Artillery, in the public announcement of the finding of the court-martial given out by Major-General McCain.

REPORT CANADA WILL GUARANTEE WHEAT PRICE

Ottawa, Ont., June 20.—The Canadian government, it is understood, has decided to follow the American example and fix a guaranteed price of wheat at $2.26 a bushel. This action was taken, it is said, because of fear that the American government would place an embargo on Canadian wheat.

Track Repairs Cause Loss of $324,002.88 for 'L' in May

It cost the Boston Elevated Railway Company just 9.267 cents per passenger to operate the road during the month of May.

A total deficit of $324,002.88 for the month is given in the report of the trustees, and given as a reason for the deficit the excess track repair work above a fair monthly average, which has necessarily been performed.

Total receipts of the company from all sources during the month of May were $2,453,191.20, with $2,385,156.87 received from passenger fares. The total cost of service, however, for the month was $2,777,194.18, of which $1,316,416.86 were expended for wages.

This cost per passenger is a slight reduction over the preceding month, when the cost aggregated 9.328 cents.

WEST MEDFORD GIRL HAS HOME WEDDING

A host of friends attended the home wedding of Miss Grace Margaret Wilkinson, a West Medford girl, and Kenneth Grant of Winchester, Dartmouth 1918, graduate and former player on his college basketball team. Following the marriage ceremony by the Rev. Henry Francis Smith, pastor of the West Medford Congregational Church, a reception was given the young couple by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard A. Wilkinson, at No. 4 Boynton terrace.

SHOE WORKERS DEMAND SHORTER HOURS OF LABOR

Haverhill, June 20.—Packing room employes, wood heelers and turn workers, to the number of about 3,800, employed in local shoe factories, voted against working more than forty-five hours a week. The cutters, who previously demanded a forty-four week went on strike today, with the exception of the few who have arbitration agreements with their employers.

GEN. EDWARDS DENIES TRANSFER TO WEST

Rumors that General Edwards, former commander of the 26th Division is to be transferred from the North eastern Department to a Western post were denied by the general himself. No orders for such a transfer have been received, and so far as is known none is on the way.

Steal Confederate Bills

Indianapolis, Ind., June 20.—Confederate bills and old coins composed the "loot" taken by someone who broke into the museum in the basement of the Indiana State House in this city.

Fat Dry Yeast to Grow Fat and Beat H. C. L., Say Medicos

Do you want to reduce the high cost of living?

Eat dry yeast, then, suggests the Boston Medical and Surgical Journal.

"It is readily digested and utilized by the animal organism. After experiments upon thirty-two white rats, the yeast diet made the rats fatter than any other diet furnished them."

High Rents Reach Court

Savannah, Ga., June 20.—Twelve leaders of the employes at the Atlantic Paper and Pulp Company have filed a suit in the Superior Court to restrain the management from increasing house rents on Simons Island.

BANDITS FIRE ON NORTH SHORE MOTORISTS

Ipswich, June 20.—Every road and garage in Essex County and on the North Shore is being watched today for a mysterious touring car with yellow wheels carrying armed bandits who have been terrorizing the district within the last twenty-four hours.

Four attempts to hold up automobilists, in which shots were fired after the fleeing parties have been reported to the police at Manchester, Beverly and this town. The police are investigating other reports that the bandits had broken into Summer residences of wealthy North Shore residents.

From Manchester came the first report when a party of excited tourists of that town stopped at the police station and told of their headlight revealing the yellow-wheeled car drawn up at the side of the road and the figures of three men jumping out from the dark and commanding them to stop. Shots hummed over the heads of the party as they sped on.

Then a party of Beverly autoists came in at the Beverly police station with a breathless story of the same experience with the yellow-wheeled car in Ipswich, near Wenham line.

Shortly afterward in rapid succession parties from Topsfield and Exeter, N. H., reached the Ipswich police station with fresh reports of the activities of the bandits.

COURT ALLOWS WILL OF MRS. E. J. LEWIS

The will of Mrs. Emily J. Lewis of Sherborn, who died March 27, has been allowed. James W. C. Lewis of Sherborn, a son; Katherine Lell, Lewis of Sherborn, a daughter, and Margaret D. L. Cook of Wellesley Hills, a daughter, have been appointed as executors. They have each given a bond of $62,000. The estate is valued at $131,000.

TRANSPORT LOSES THREE MASTS IN ACCIDENT

New York, June 20.—The transport Great Waldersee, which went aground off Long Beach recently, suffered another mishap when her three masts were snapped off while passing under Brooklyn Bridge on her way to the Navy Yard.

GREET MAXWELL PROFESSOR AT B. U.

President Lemuel Herbert Murlin of Boston University, introduced Dr. Fred A. Cleveland of Norwood, professor-elect, and George H. Maxwell of Boston, founder, of the chair of American Citizenship, at the conference on United States Citizenship in Jacob Sleeper Hall, Boston University, today.

"This subject has been called political science, politics and administration," said Dr. Cleveland. "It is very evident that the founder of this chair has intended to give special emphasis to the duties and rights, the inheritences and opportunities of American citizens. The question we have before us today is how we can best produce in this field."

Mr. Maxwell was given an enthusiastic greeting by the several hundred people present.

"In reading the protest of Ex-President Roosevelt and President Emeritus Eliot of Harvard in regard to our lack of preparedness, I was struck very forcibly by the fact that most of the people in the country did not seem to appreciate the situation. They did not seem to realize our duty to the world nor our duty to ourselves.

"This chair must deal not merely with the history of our political development, civil government and economics, but must impress upon the young man a comprehensive idea of his nation. Here in New England we are noted for our provincialism."

Dr. William Roscoe Thayer of Cambridge chose for his address, "Theodore Roosevelt, Citizen."

"Theodore Roosevelt was not only a citizen, but a statesman. I shall make no attempt in my talk to distinguish between the two. He is the only great statesman we have had since Lincoln."

Dr. Thayer gave an intimate talk on Roosevelt's life.

A discussion was held at the Hotel Vendome this afternoon to consider methods of teaching citizenship.

Mayor Peters said: "The time has come when we must defend ourselves. We must offset the hostile propaganda conducted against our institutions on our own soil. We must win and hold the loyalty of the working class and particularly of those neglected and almost isolated groups of foreigners in our great cities, who sometimes, I fear, wonder whether they really belong to us and whether they are quite welcome here."

SOCIAL LEADERS ATTEND HEAD WEDDING

Brookline Girl Married to Lynn Leather Man at Brilliant Function

Prominent society people from Tennessee, New York State and Greater Boston attended the wedding at St. Mark's M. E. Church, Brookline, of Miss A. Cherry Head, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Head of Brookline, and Charles Edward Conway, Yale '12, of Lynn.

The ceremony was performed by the pastor, the Rev. J. Ralph Magee. The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attended by Miss Cornelia Head, her sister, as maid of honor. The matron of honor was Mrs. Clarence Schultz of Oyster Bay, N. Y., cousin of the bridegroom.

The bridesmaids were Miss Elizabeth Jordan, cousin of the bride, of Memphis, Tenn.; Miss Elizabeth Rees, also of Memphis, Tenn.; Mrs. Frank Spencer, Brookline; Mrs. James Knox of New York city. The best man was Gerald Hitchings of Lynn, and the ushers were Messrs. Clarence Schultz of New York, Marshall Head, brother of the bride, of Brookline; James Knox of New York, George Lynch, Frank Spencer of Brookline and Thomas Johnson of Lynn.

A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents at No. 35 Abbottsford road. After an extended wedding journey Mr. and Mrs. Conway will make their home at Brookline. The bride is a graduate of the Hamilton School, Washington, and the Curry School of Expression and prominent among the younger society. Her father was former Mayor of Memphis. Mr. Conway is engaged in the leather business at Lynn.

Name Legion Commander

Whitinsville, June 20—Josiah Lasell, 2d, has been elected commander of the American Legion post which has just been organized. The matter of naming the post was left until later.

MRS. WALTER H. GEISLER, formerly Miss Anna M. McGrath, married in Somerville church.

Walter H. Geisler of Lawrence and his bride, who was Miss Anna M. McGrath, a yeoman (F) at Boston navy yard, were married at St. Ann's Church, Somerville, by Rev. Francis J. Butler. A nuptial mass followed the ceremony.

JAIL SENTENCES FOR 9 SHOE STRIKERS

Defendants Appeal in Assault Cases at Plant Factory

Jail sentences were dealt out to nine strikers of the Thomas G. Plant shoe factory by Judge Hayden in the Roxbury Municipal Court after they were found guilty of assault on employes of the factory. All defendants appealed. The arrests were made by Sergeants Dennis F. Kerrigan and John J. Mullen and Patrolman John J. Hoar of the Roxbury Crossing Station.

The heaviest sentence was imposed upon Jerry Christopher of No. 42 Leyden street, East Boston, who was found guilty of assault upon Walter Mitchell, an employe. Christopher, a striker, is alleged to have struck Mitchell. Judge Hayden imposed a sentence of six months in the House of Correction.

Nicholas Cardone of 1451 Columbus avenue, Roxbury Crossing, was before the court on three complaints of assault upon Henry Grass, Frank A. McKita and Fred E. Valler, all employes. He was found guilty and given one month in the house of correction on each count.

Cirace Mettolo of 141 Cottage street, East Boston, was given one month in the house of correction for an assault on John McKito.

Fredericko Antello of 62 Frankfort street, East Boston, charged with an assault on Fred E. Valler, was given one month. A similar sentence was imposed on Frank Rignomondo of 266 Hanover street, North End, for an assault on Joseph Kramin.

Charged with throwing missiles, Anthony Sims of No. 27 Copeland street and Samuel Donadio of No. 17 Hull street, North End, also strikers, were fined $20. Henry Godat was fined $15.

Joseph Nustiasia of No. 284 Centre street, Jamaica Plain, was given one months' sentence.

More than 3,000 skilled employes of the Plant strike have unanimously voted to remain out until the officials recognize unions. This vote was taken by members of the Allied and United shoe Workers Unions. Labor leaders say that more than 500 strikers have employment elsewhere.

Chicago to Boast Biggest Stadium in World

Chicago, June 20—This city in the near future will have the largest stadium in the world.

This huge playground was assured recently when the South Park Board unanimously voted to raise $1,000,000 towards defraying the expenses of the "largest stadium in the world" in Grant Park. Chicago business got together and clinched the thing when they sent word to the board to "speed things up as money need be no object when it comes to putting the thing over."

Plans are being considered for a "bowl" similar to the Yale bowl. The proposed Chicago bowl will have a much greater seating capacity—probably 100,000.

LEXINGTON HIGH JUNIOR PROM TONIGHT

Lexington, June 20—The annual junior prom will be held in the Lexington High School hall tonight at 7.45 o'clock. It will take the form of the annual reception of the junior class to the members of the graduating class. The committee in charge are the class president, Gordon Richards, chairman; Miss Annie Moakley, Miss Mildred Scott, Richard Moakley and Harold Wellington. The patrons will be Mrs. Hattie C. Blake and Mrs. Edward P. Merriam, wives of school committeemen, and Miss Grace P. French of the high school faculty and junior councillor. They and the class president will be in the receiving line.

CHARGE WOMAN TOOK BABY TO FOOL HUSBAND

Soldier Has Just Returned from Service; Will Arrest Her for Kidnaping

Troy, N. Y., June 20—A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Mrs. Eugene V. Thomas of North Adams, Mass., alleged to have kidnaped her eight-months-old niece and passed it off on her soldier husband as her own.

The child is that of Mrs. William McCumber of Castleton.

The husband returned from service abroad early this week. Just before his return, his wife is alleged to have taken the child pretending to wish to take it to visit other relatives. Thomas says his wife have been traced to Toledo.

The police say Thomas knows nothing of the kidnaping.

CHELSEA BOY'S BURNS MAY PROVE TO BE FATAL

Eight-year-old Abraham Gilman No. 38 Poplar street, Chelsea, was probably fatally burned while playing with firecrackers in the yard of his home. The boy lit a bunch of crackers and the sparks ignited his clothing. He tried to extinguish the fire, but without success. He ran into the house and Jeane Cantavenzelch at No. 67 Walnut street, and the latter smothered the flames with his hands, and in doing so was badly burned about the arms.

Worcester, July 21—Eleven honorary degrees will be conferred by Holy Cross College Wednesday at the commencement exercises when a class of ninety-two will be graduated.

The degree of doctor of laws will be conferred on Judge Edward F. Hardy of Fall River, class of 1894; William F. Madigan of Thompsonville, Conn., chairman of the war activities committee of the National Council of K. of C., and on Major Daniel J. Gainey of Providence, class of 1910.

The degree of master of arts will be conferred on George H. Hogan of Boston, class of 1894; the Rev. Edward P. Canavan of Little Rock, Ark., class of 1903; Francis P. Magrath of Shrewsbury, class of 1913; Richard J. Morrissey of Worcester, class of 1914; Thomas J. Lee of Worcester, class of 1915; John B. Kelly of Worcester, class of 1916, and Joseph P. Connelly.

Francis A. Williams of Boston will be given the honorary degree of master of science.

5 AUTOISTS SUE N. Y. C. FOR RUNNING DOWN CAR

As the result of a collision between a New York car and a Hudson, New Railroad train and an automobile on the Boston post road in Framingham on December 8, 1918, five suits, totalling $14,000 in damages are asked, have been filed against the company. Elizabeth Putnam, Jennie F. Putnam, Thelma Putnam and Sherman Putnam, all of Wenham, are for $1,000 each. Lyman Hudson of Needham, who was driving the automobile, sues for $500 for the damage done to his machine.

MEDALS FOR 550 WESTERLY WAR HEROES

Presentation to Be Made Thursday in Connection With 250th Anniversary Exercises

Westerly, R. I., June 20—Presentation of medals to 550 boys who served in the world war will be made Thursday as part of the 250th anniversary commemorating the first settlement of the town of Westerly. Governor Emerson of Rhode Island and Governor Beeckman of New Jersey, a native of Westerly, will be present to speak on the occasion. Thursday will be observed as Rhode Island Tercentenary Day.

Governor Emerson arrived at Westerly this afternoon by automobile from Providence. He was met at the state line by a delegation of citizens and escorted to the town. Governor Beeckman arrived in Westerly this morning by automobile from Trenton, N. J.

The program of exercises will be held in the morning and afternoon in the open air. Governor Emerson will speak at the morning session and Governor Beeckman at the afternoon session. Governor Emerson will also be present at the banquet of the town fathers Thursday evening.

Filene's

Come all the way under cover. Filene's at the junction of all Boston subways.

QUICK SHOPPING: Express elevators to and from 4th, 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th floors, escalator to 2nd floor. Convenient grouping—5th and 6th floors for women's outer apparel. Entire 4th floor for girls', juniors' and misses' outer apparel. 3d floor for women's and misses' intimate apparel and baby shops. 2nd floor for men and boys. Street floor for stockings and such things.

A hard task—getting ENOUGH of Filene values

VERY rarely do our advertisements tell as good a story as the shops themselves. We do not dare to!

For in these days of upset market conditions, of scarce labor, slow deliveries and BIG BUSINESS it is difficult to keep enough of our Filene values to supply those who make it a habit of coming here all the time.

So it is that it is almost always safe to promise better values than those advertised—for the better values naturally are those that go first and will not therefore stand the pressure of public announcement.

And Filene values in general are made better in part because we have separated the cost of merchandise from the cost of service, asking you to pay only for what you get and giving you what you pay for.

"GARDEN HATS" says the Street Floor Shop

Complete $4.49

The Street Floor Shop has the hats, the flowers, the ribbons. It is rich, too, in suggestions for trimming and will put them on just as they should go. One garden hat suggestion is sketched—a Wenchow hat of $1, a wild flower garland, $2.50, a streamer of black velvet ribbon, 99c; totaling $4.49 complete.

Coarse shiny chain body straw hats, $3.75. Wild flower garlands from $1.25 to $3, the last including lovely big, red silk poppies.

Filene's—mail orders filled—street floor

FIBER sweaters, $12.75

The uneven, figured surface suggests a man's knitted silk tie. Tuxedo revers and cuffs are a planner, contrasting weave. Unusual colors—tomato, turquoise, white, black, tangerine, navy and buff.

Filene's—mail orders filled—fifth floor

Misses' long sport coats, $35, $45

light for all their bigness

Big, roomy sport coats of the motor type (see sketch), 4 ex., with shoreen cuffs, three big flapped patch pockets, full all around belts and mannish long slit in back seam. Mixtures with satin sleeve and yoke linings are $35. Polo cloth made the same way, full silk linings, are $45.

$24

FileneKnit jersey sport coats, beginning at $13.75

Filene's—mail orders filled—fourth floor

Misses' heather pinch-back jersey suits, $25

Did you ever try to get the goodness of a suit into a few words? It is hard to convey here the warmth of heather jersey—and the kind of workmanship and style put into these misses' sport suits at $25. They are Filene values—the kind made possible in part by separating the cost of merchandise and the cost of service.

Filene's—mail orders filled—fourth floor

Filene values in women's BLOUSES

Fresh, new, beautifully made; in all sizes from 34 to 44. COLOR is the keynote of the frilly blouse sketched. It is white batiste, its scalloped frills edged with wide bands of blue or yellow, $2.50. Sketched on the left. HANDMADE FILET lace is the making of the other blouse. It has a horse collar and looks like an over-the-head blouse, fastening invisibly on the side. White and flesh. Georgette, $8.75. Sketched on the right.

Filene's—mail orders filled—fifth floor

Ask any man how he likes a knitted topcoat—

BRITISH POSTAL CENSORS QUIT WITH PEACE

Prevented Germany from Gaining Access to World Markets After Armistice

London, June 20.—With the signing of peace and the removal of the blockade the postal censorship in Great Britain is expected to pass. This censorship has been one of the country's best weapons against Germany. Despite obtained from it may be briefly summarized thus:

It has prevented German propaganda in other countries.

It has prevented transmission of military secrets to the Central Powers.

It has prevented Germany from carrying into effect elaborate schemes for being first in the world markets when the war was over.

It has kept the government constantly informed on a thousand and one things which were vital for winning the war.

150,000 LETTERS DAILY.

A staff of some 4,000 men and women, including ninety linguists able to translate some 100 languages, were constantly kept busy; some days as many as 150,000 letters being opened and examined.

Some letters which looked innocent enough were treated chemically and found to contain secret writing. X-rays were used to detect articles concealed in parcels.

A favorite method which Germans in America used in trying to send food home was to make a roll containing rice, coffee, cocoa, etc., and attach false ends to make it appear like a bundle of newspapers. That's why practically every roll of newspaper coming into this country was unfastened. Others would fold papers, cut large holes in the centre as receptacles for rubber and other articles.

Books of old magazines, a school edition of Homer, etc., were used to conceal propaganda. A regular library has been gathered at the censors' headquarters of this kind of thing. When the unified command under Foch was established the Germans tried to get into other countries cartloads ridiculing Foch.

PACKAGES FOR KAISER.

One represented a Gallic cock perched on the head of the British lion. Another, when America entered the war, shows the Roosevelt family as Indians brandishing tomahawks.

Many packages were addressed to the Kaiser, some of them from the United States, including chicken bones and dry bread and a cartoon marked "If not there please forward to St. Helena."

Most of the evidence in court cases against trading with the enemy was based on information supplied by the censor.

The linguists had the most trouble with documents written in Basque, Zulu, Chinese and Turkish and Bulgarian characters.

GOVERNOR WILL NOT MIX IN DONHAM "BONUS" CASE

Governor Coolidge, in response to a letter from William F. Fitzgerald, Boston banker, protesting against the bonus allowed by Judge Morton in the United States District Court to former Receiver Wallace H. Donham of the Bay State road, states that there is absolutely nothing that the State can do in the matter. "It is entirely a proposition for the court to act upon," said the Governor.

Mr. Fitzgerald's letter to the State House stated that he publicly protested against the granting of the $50,000 bonus to the receiver, alleging that to conduct a railroad needed only ordinary business methods.

NINE HEROES TO GET MEDALS ON COMMON

Gen. Edwards Will Make Presentation; Two Posthumous Awards

Nine distinguished service crosses will be awarded by Major General C. H. Edwards on Boston Common next Tuesday, at 2 p. m. In addition to the six already given out the following named persons will be awarded the crosses with their citations:

Mrs. Fred Daniels, mother of Private Fred H. Daniels, Company B, 102d Infantry, for his extraordinary heroism in action. When it became vitally important to get a message to the battalion commander, Private Daniels volunteered for the mission. Shortly after starting on his mission and while passing through a murderous fire he was instantly killed.

Second Lieutenant Ralph M. Brigham, then infantry, for heroism in action near Belleau Woods. After being painfully wounded by machine gun fire, he rallied what little remained command of the company and gallantly led it to its objective. His home address is No. 856 Massachusetts avenue, Arlington.

Pvt. Private Adelarde Boucher, Headquarters Company, 101st Infantry. During three days of intense concentrated machine gun fire Private Boucher acted as guide and liaison runner for the several units of his regiment, both day and night, passing through heavy fire. He lives at No. 248 Plymouth street, Fitchburg.

The other six to receive crosses are:

Private Clifford B. Mellen, C. A. 104, No. 8 Hooper street, Worcester.

Private Archie Scott, Co. M, 103d Infantry, No. 41 Orchard street, Cambridge.

Private W. H. Davis, Company E, 104th Infantry, No. 21 Spring street, Avon.

Private Joseph Bougian, Company C, 101st Infantry, Newton.

John Fray, Company H, 102d Infantry, Waterbury, Ct.

Mrs. Mary J. Spinney, No. 1 Faneuil Terrace, Brighton, for her son, Corporal George T. Spinney, Company C, 101st Infantry, killed at Verdun.

LOVE MADE ON BOSTON TRAIN TURNS OUT BADLY

New York, June 19.—Mrs. Eva Asbury Horels, pretty and vivacious, appeared before Justice Aspinwall in the Supreme Court this morning in annulment proceedings brought by Henry W. Horels, who says she enticed him into wedlock with him without having divorced her first husband. He asks for legitimization of their child, Henrietta, born February 17, 1918. Husband No. 1, Edward Asbury, said he and Eva were married in 1912. Horels said he married the young woman in 1917, shortly after he had met her on a train from Boston.

TWO HORSES BURNED TO DEATH AT EAST BOSTON

Two horses were burned to death and about thirty reached at a fire in the stable of Harris Berman at No. 336 Bremen street, East Boston. The loss is estimated at $1,000.

Arthur Barnes of No. 314 Chelsea street, East Boston, and Leo Flaschner of No. 1250 Blue Hill avenue, Dorchester, with other young men, risked their lives and brought out the trapped animals. The loft collapsed immediately afterward, endangering the lives of firemen fighting the fire from that location.

WHITMAN MAN DEAD AFTER AUTO ACCIDENT

Brockton, June 26.—Warren Cousins of Whitman died today at the Brockton Hospital from injuries received in an automobile accident in the town of Halifax early today. The car plunged into Lake Monponset. Cousins was rescued, but sustained fatal injury.

Double Wedding at Circus Witnessed by 8,000

Brockton, June 20.—Eight thousand persons attended a double wedding in a circus arena here last night. Miss Anna Dorr of New Britain, Ct., was married to Vincent Mendell of Farmington, Ct., and Miss Mabel Fuller of Adams was married to Thomas F. Hayden of Hartford, Ct. City Clerk Calvin B. Barrett performed the ceremony on a specially constructed platform after the evening performance at 10:30.

The brides have been with the show this year, were "Hawaiian dancers," and their husbands are musicians. The couples had been engaged some time, but the circus moved too rapidly to permit them to marry, under the Brockton law.

When the two State Guard companies of Brockton reached the California Exposition Show to play here a week it gave the couples their long-sought chance. Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Hall of Stamford gave the brides away. Hall is manager of the show. The circus employees almost snowed the couples under with old shoes, rice and confetti and presented each couple 100 in gold.

INCREASE SALARY OF LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR

With an amendment making it take effect in 1920, the Senate Ways and Means committee reported the bill increasing the salary of the Lieutenant-Governor from $2,000 to $4,000. The House originally favored a retroactive increase to the first of the year.

The proponents of a navigable Merrimack were cheered by the action of the same committee in recommending that the appropriation of $1,000,000 to improve that stream be extended to 1922. Without this action the appropriation would expire this year. Haverhill and Lowell residents plan to be present at a gathering of U. S. engineers in Washington on July 8, to urge the dredging of a channel from the sea to Lowell, for which this sum is a nucleus.

SEE STRIKE OF DRAPER WORKERS AT HOPEDALE

Hopedale, June 20.—Park House, Dutcher street, owned by the Draper corporation, and which has been idle for the past several years, is being renovated and fitted up preparatory to occupancy. No announcement has been made as yet that the demands of the Milford Lodge of Machinists recently presented to the Draper Corporation to become effective July 1, had been granted, and the men say this means a strike. In 1913 during the strike at the Draper plant the Park House was used by help at the shop.

MACHINE GUNS AWE RIOTERS IN WATERBURY

Four Strikers Held in $5,000 Each to Await Outcome of Injuries to Policemen

By International News Service.

Waterbury, Conn., June 20.—Quiet reigned in this city today following last night's riots in which half a dozen or more policemen were injured, one seriously, and a number of rioters suffered injury. The riot followed a walkout of employes of five large manufacturing plants. The entire enforced police force, members of the city guard and the local company of State guardsmen were still on duty to prevent disorder and keep the crowds moving.

The Brooklyn district of the city where the riots originated was still practically under martial law today. Machine guns which were brought out last night to awe the rioters were still in position ready for action and every precaution was taken by the authorities to prevent a repetition of last night's disturbances.

Policeman John Moore was the only member of the local force seriously hurt, and at St. Mary's Hospital today it was stated that his condition was uncertain. It is believed that he has a fractured skull, he having been struck on the head with a stone. The other officers who were injured were all recovering from cuts and bruises.

In the police court today John Eneskey, Charles Perroni, Dennis Welsh and John Lichinch, arrested on charges of assault with intent to kill Policeman Moore, were arraigned. Their cases were continued under bonds of $5,000, each to await the outcome of the policeman's injuries.

John Didase, who was caught distributing I. W. W. literature, was fined $25 and costs, and, when his counsel filed an appeal in the case, bonds were fixed at $2,500. Nearly two score more persons, some of them women, were arraigned on various charges.

The saloons remained closed today.

It is estimated that the strikers number now about 5,000, and practically all of them are unskilled laborers. Attacks upon workers from the factories who are not on strike caused the trouble.

DEDHAM CLUB GARAGE AND 5 AUTOS BURNED

Damage estimated at $25,000 was caused by a fire that broke out in the garage of the Dedham Country and Polo Club on High street. Besides the garage five automobiles were totally destroyed and an adjoining building occupied by Eugene Cochrane, was gutted. The firemen had difficulty in preventing the fire

DENIES SHE WAS PET OF MANY RICH MEN

Actress Who Is Suing Music Publisher Demands He Prove His Charges

New York, June 20.—Miss Grace Fisher, a musical comedy star, expressed surprise before Supreme Court Justice Donnelly at the charge made by Gustav Schirmer, millionaire music publisher, whom she is suing for $250,000 for alleged breach of promise of marriage, that she had been under various names in apartments under protection of wealthy men.

Judge Donnelly granted her request that Schirmer be required to furnish within five days the names of her alleged rich "protectors," the apartments referred to, and also the name of a wealthy young Cleveland man whom Schirmer said the actress told him she was engaged to marry.

The latter revelation came, Schirmer alleged, after he had paid Miss Fisher $1,000 "to purchase his peace and prevent another scandal." In his amended answer to the actress' suit, Schirmer declared he did not consider her fit to become his wife.

SISTER CATHARINE BURIED AT MENDON

Mendon, June 20.—Sister Catharine, or Catharine Schuyler Jones, aged ninety years, who died at Resthaven, was buried here. The Rev. W. B. Hawk of Pawtucket conducted the service. Sister Catharine came to Mendon with her niece, Miss Seabury, and lived here since 1912.

She was born in New York and in 1854 was received as a full sister in the Sisterhood of the Holy Communion. At the time of her death she was the oldest sister in point of reception in the American Church. In 1904 she completed fifty years of active work.

ROXBURY CHURCH TO HEAR HOBO EVANGELIST

Frank Curtis will preach at the Christian Church, St. James street, Roxbury, on Sunday morning at the invitation of the pastor, the Rev. Norman Brighton. He will speak on the text from St. John's Gospel, "The Value of a Soul." Frank Curtis was once a hobo and is now an evangelist. He has been in rescue work more than eleven years.

EXPECT HOUSE TO CONCUR ON SUFFRAGE

State Senate Ratifies Federal Amendment: Goes Before Representatives Monday

The House is expected to follow the action of the Senate, which by an overwhelming vote passed resolutions ratifying the Federal amendment granting suffrage to women, and defeated an amendment designed to delay or defeat it in this State.

Representatives of both parties and of organized labor who have been outstanding in the fight for suffrage in behalf of suffrage declared that there will be a large majority in the House in favor of the amendment. This amendment was ratified in the Senate by a vote of 24 to 6.

Little time was spent in making speeches in the upper branch and, after the ratification, the resolutions were speeded on their way to the House under a suspension of the rules. That body had adjourned for the day and was officially notified of the action of the Senate today.

The House is expected to include the Federal amendment in the orders of the day for Monday and to assign a day on which to act upon it. When they have done so, Massachusetts will be the 37th State in the union to adopt the Federal amendment, it is confidently predicted.

SUFFS WATCH VOTE.

Many suffragists and a few antis were in the galleries during the Senate debate. They were not a bit disappointed when the senators left to enter into a joint session with the House on a taxation measure, but retained their seats in the chamber, empty, save for a few messengers, for over an hour.

Senator Thomas J. Weston of Newton sought to amend the resolutions in order to secure a referendum by the voters at the State election. This was voted down and by the same vote the resolutions were adopted. The vote was as follows:

Favoring suffrage—Beck, Brown, Callahan, Cavanaugh, Chamberlin, Churchill, Coburn, Cunthan, Cronin, Curran, Cuelin, Dahlborg, Emmes, Finkel, Foley, Clifford, Halliwell, Hardy of Huntington, Hastings, Hobbs, Jackson, Kearney, Knox, Mahoney, McKnight, McLane, Nason, Perrin, Prescott, Reed, Sullivan, Tarbell, Walsh and Winchester—24.

QUESTIONS MOTIVE.

Senator Cavanaugh of Everett, speaking against the amendment to refer to the voters at the State election, said: "Do we believe that the vote should be extended to women? It is upon this question that we must pass. I see no reason why this matter should be submitted to a referendum vote. We are qualified to pass upon it here. I believe that the motive of Senator Weston in introducing the substitute resolve is to secure postponement of the question. This should not be done."

LIGHTS CIGAR WITH $1,000 CITY BOND

Evansville, Ind., June 20.—Seated in the office of Benjamin Bosse, Mayor of Evansville, Charles Howard, City Collector, lighted a cigar with a $1,000 city bond.

"This is what I call a touch of high life," Howard remarked to his friends.

However, the bond was one of fourteen of $1,000 denominations that the city sinking fund commissioners have retired since January 1.

ADAMS HERO TO GET MEDAL AT WASHINGTON

Adams, June 20.—Sergeant Franklin Hard of this town, who was cited for bravery last April, has left for Washington, D. C., where he will be decorated with the Distinguished Service Cross. His citation was the result of his assuming command of his company after all the officers had fallen.

Revive Shakespeare Festival First Time Since '14

London, June 20.—Stratford-on-Avon saw a return to pre-war conditions recently when for the first time since 1914 the Shakesperean Festival was once more held.

Lovers of Shakespeare from all over the country gathered at Stratford, among them being many Americans. After a service in the little church there were games and speeches, with a small pageant in costumes of the Elizabethan period.

The festival concluded with a number of folk dances of Tudor times, performed by some of the actors in the pageant. The statue of Shakespeare was fittingly decorated with streamers and flowers, as were the Ann Hathaway cottage and the Shakespeare house and museum.

LABOR FAVORS IMMIGRATION RESTRICTION

Delegates Adopt Resolution to Impeach Judges Exceeding Authority

Atlantic City, N. J., June 20.—A resolution favoring restriction of immigration during the reconstruction period has been adopted by the American Federation of Labor after a bitter debate.

Another resolution adopted rejected the proposal that organized labor form a political party, while a third branded the power of courts to declare unconstitutional and void legislation already enacted as "usurpations by the judiciary of the legislative and executive powers of the government."

"Autocratic, despotic and tyrannical" were some of the terms used in referring to the judiciary.

Immediate impeachment of all judges exceeding their authority was urged.

A reconstruction program, termed "a new Declaration of Independence for workmen of America," was approved in a resolution "that labor now insists on full value and compensation for services rendered on a basis that will enable all to enjoy the higher things of life rather than merely exist above the line beyond which we find human misery."

MOVIES AND CONCERT TONIGHT ON COMMON

The third of a series of every-night Service Unit programs to help Army recruiting will be given tonight at the Army camp on Boston Common. The features of the program, following a short concert by the Air Service Band in charge of Lieutenant A. F. McMackin, will be official War Department motion pictures showing how men are trained to become soldiers; community singing led by the music director of the Service Unit, Leon E. Baldwin; information concerning Army matters, and two "silent talks" on the screen.

The nightly Service Unit programs are a contribution by that organization of the B. Y. M. C. Union to the work being conducted by Major F. R. Shaw of the Army recruiting station.

LOST ROLL OF $5,400 IN WELCOME TO HEROES

Athol, June 20.—George Pierce, a resident of the Windsor House, who for many years was reputed to have been one of the richest men of Royalston, reported to the police the loss of a pocketbook containing $5,000 in notes, $150 in Liberty Bonds and $250 in cash. Pierce received the money during the soldiers' welcome home celebration Monday.

HUB MEN TO GO TO REALTY CONVENTION

Topics of Importance Will Be Discussed at Atlantic City Meeting

The annual convention of the National Association of Real Estate Exchanges will be held at Atlantic City from June 25 to 28, inclusive. The convention this year bids fair to be one of the most important that has been held since the organization of the association. Several important matters are to come before the meeting for discussion and adoption, made necessary by the high cost of building materials and labor conditions, and the indications point to many important matters pertaining to the real estate market which will be considered.

President Mark Temple Bowling of the Boston Real Estate Exchange, and D. Prentiss Rich, the latter as a delegate from the Boston exchange, together with many prominent brokers and operators of Boston and vicinity, will be in attendance, representing the Boston body.

Among some of the most important matters to come up for discussion will be the "Proper Development of Modest Priced Sub-divisions," "Our Own Home," "The Vacant Lot," "Building and Management of Apartments at High Level of War Prices," "What Realtors Can Do to Help Abate the Signboard Nuisance," "Does Real Estate Pay An Adequate Return?" and the question of Real Estate Licenses. These subjects will be handled by men recognized as experts in their line.

The Chicago Real Estate Board has offered a prize of a cup for the best five minutes speech on the various topics to come before the convention. Great interest is being manifested and the indications point to a large attendance.

LAWRENCE MAN NAMES SELF REVOLUTION HEAD

New York, June 20.—W. Lathrop Meaker of Lawrence, Mass., nominated himself as leader of "the coming social revolution" and as a candidate for the Presidency on the Liberal Socialist ticket. Mr. Meaker made the announcement in notices sent to the newspapers, and in a soapbox oration in Rutgers Square.

His platform calls for public ownership and operation of all natural resources, transportation and communication lines, abolition of patents, direct taxation, establishment of municipal stores and employment by the community of all who are unable to obtain work elsewhere.

CUMMINGS DEPLORES LEAGUE AS PARTY ISSUE

Washington, June 20.—The attempt of Chairman Cummings of the Democratic National Committee to make the League of Nations a party question, was deplored by Senator Thomas of Colorado, Democrat, in a speech delivered in the Senate.

Senator Thomas declared the question was too important to be decided on party lines. He commended Republican Chairman Hays for refusing to make the issue one of partisanship.

Predicts Award of Shan Tung to Japan Will Bring War

Washington, June 20.—That the award of the Shan Tung peninsula will result in war in the Far East with the United States involved, was the prediction of Professor J. W. Jenks of New York University and former member of the Dillingham Immigration Commission.

"The award to declared, seems so contrary to right and justice as contrary to the development of democratic principles in the war, as contrary to the principles for which America and the Allies fought the European war, that unless some facts enter that do not now appear the decision is almost certain to bring war in the Far East in which the United States certainly will be involved."

Considerate Thieves

St. Louis, June 20.—Robert L. Spohr got off a grand avenue car here to find himself confronted by two men with revolvers. They searched him and took his gold watch and $1.40.

Spohr explained that the money was all he had to cover his expenses for the remainder of the week. The robbers returned sixty cents.

"That's for carefare," they said. "It's all we can afford."

TEN TROOPSHIPS COMING WITH 20,700 MEN

Transports Sailing from France June 17 Scheduled Mostly for New York

Washington, June 20.—Ten troopships, bringing some 20,700 officers and men of the American Expeditionary Force, sailed from French ports on June 17, the War Department announced. They are:

Calls on Congress to Thank Women for War Work

By Universal Service.

Washington, June 20.—A joint resolution extending the thanks of Congress "to the women of America for their splendid devotion to the cause for which their country was united in the great war" was introduced in the House by Representative Julius Kahn of California, chairman of the Military Affairs Committee.

Mr. Kahn stated that he had noted with great interest the editorials and cartoons in the hearst newspapers urging recognition of the invaluable part played by the American women during the war.

"I heartily concur in the sentiments expressed in those articles," he said.

EX-POLICE OFFICIAL IS 67 YEARS YOUNG

William H. Watts, former head of the Boston police bureau of criminology, was congratulated by his former associates at headquarters and a host of other friends on his sixty-seventh birthday anniversary. "I'm feeling like a schoolboy," the former police official declared, as he looked out of the window and made a mental note of a man who was jostling his way through a crowd.

DIVORCE LINES FOLLOW BRITISH WAR WEDDINGS

All Court Records Broken: Unrestrained Freedom of Women the Reason

By FLOYD MACGRIFF,
Universal Service Staff Correspondent.

London, June 20.—Divorce courts are the latest. During the war, when the genuine and sentimental drift to the front gained, then theatre across the suburban queues, then trade, and very often recruiting stations, the population thinned out in the interests of the war and nationals waiting for rumors. On the direct queue is looked upon as a national service, commercial or industrial.

Many hasty marriages were made during the war, some of the brides evidently thinking that the husband might "get in" at the front and, perhaps, many of the husbands wishing as much.

Now, with the war over, and husbands and wives finding their ideal really live together, they are seeking the solace of the disinfectant of matrimonial ties. Then, too, three or four years' absence made considerable difference in the line of many couples, and the natural desire for a "new start" or a "new deal" was manifested itself in a rush for divorce.

Says Harry Wilson, well-known London divorce lawyer:

"There have been more decds of separation drawn up in the last two years than in any previous twenty years.

"In the courts we are crowding legal matters, issues in almost as great numbers as during normal times, but the difference is that formerly lawyers stood off before the war broke to seek advice and settlement of matrimonial troubles, but that during the war these developed to a point where they could be settled in chambers that had never before been used as more than places of waiting about and entering into a court. Now they are crowded with cases from the moment the court is opened on Monday morning until it is closed on Saturday afternoon."

AIR SERVICE IS GETTING MOST RECRUITS

Kiddy Performers Feature Remarkable Program in Today's Army Drive Noon Rally

The army recruiting drive for 6,000 men in the Boston district is proceeding with unabated success. Applications for enlistment, a large number from previous service men, continue to come in, the latest batch being thirty in number.

The air service continues to be the most popular branch, many men entering for the opportunities it affords to become masters of various trades. Following it a close second is the Coast Artillery, both branches gaining much from their extensive exhibits on the Charles street side of the Common.

Much of the success of the drive is also due to the noonday rallies conducted by the American at the Liberty Cottage. At these rallies talent from the various theatres appears daily, together with the Leo Feist Songsters and the band from the Air Service Recruiting Detachment. At each of these rallies a piano is used which is loaned by the M. Steinert & Sons Company.

The recruiting staff of the local district, headed by Major P. B. Shaw and including Major G. C. Eley and Captain I. H. Angell, are working indefatigably to make the drive a success and their efforts are meeting with enthusiastic response.

STELLAR PROGRAM TODAY.

At today's rally the leading speaker was Brigadier-General E. Leroy Sweetser, who commanded the Massachusetts troops on the Mexican border and was in command of the Depot Brigade of the 26th Division when this country entered the war. Private Edward H. James also spoke.

Several talented child artists from the School for Stage Children of New England, of which Mrs. Mabel Lymah is manager, also entertained at the rally. They included "Baby" Verna Barr, three and one-half years old, billed wherever she appears as "the youngest actress in the world," her eight-year-old sister Marguerite in a singing and dancing skit; Alice Wood, the clever solo dancer who pleased hundreds of people at the theatrical ball last Winter in Symphony Hall, conducted in behalf of the Boston American's Basket Fund; Daily Jolly-more, Marea and Margaret Kerns in songs.

KERNS SISTERS APPEAR.

Margaret Kerns appeared last week in the "47 Workshop" play at Radcliffe College, under Professor Baker of Harvard. She and her sister and Miss Wood recently appeared at the Round Table meeting given by Joe Mitchell Chapple in honor of General Edwards. General Edwards took each of the youngsters on his knee after their performance and said he wanted them to tell the assembly that they were members of the 26th Division, and if anyone asked "What company?" to reply "Vaudeville company."

By permission of Al Jolson the Kerns sisters gave a black face skit today in which they sang his famous song "I'll Say She Does."

One of Miss Wood's numbers will be a jazz dance in imitation of Ann Pennington, given with Miss Pennington's consent. Miss Wood visited Miss Pennington at her apartment in the Copley-Plaza Hotel on her recent Boston engagement, at which time the Follies star showed the little Boston girl a special entrance for her jazz dance. Miss Pennington also entertained the young miss in her dressing room at the theatre, much to the little dancer's delight.

GIVE SPANISH DANCES.

The third and last of the season's school exhibitions of these children will be given tonight in Jordan Hall. Others who will appear are Doris Ferguson, Beatrice Beatson, Muriel Whipple, Florence Bersig, Emma Cote and Jeanette Fraser. There will be a vaudeville program, including a skit from Uncle Tom's Cabin, group songs, solo and ensemble dancing. Native Spanish dances will be given by Ramon Ricalde and Carmencita.

DRIVERLESS TEAM IS WISE TO "GO" AND "STOP"

Indianapolis, Ind., June 20.—A team of horses owned by an Indianapolis wholesale grocery company decided to move without their driver. The horses drawing a dray started slowly. They were just behind the white line at Meridian and Maryland streets when the traffic man turned the semaphore. The "stop" sign faced the horses and they stopped. In a few minutes the traffic man turned the semaphore and the "go" sign faced the horses. They went. As the team stopped at the "stop" sign and started at the "go" sign traffic man failed to notice they were driverless. The horses slowly walked to the next corner and again the "stop" sign was up. The horses stopped. And this is the way the driver caught them.

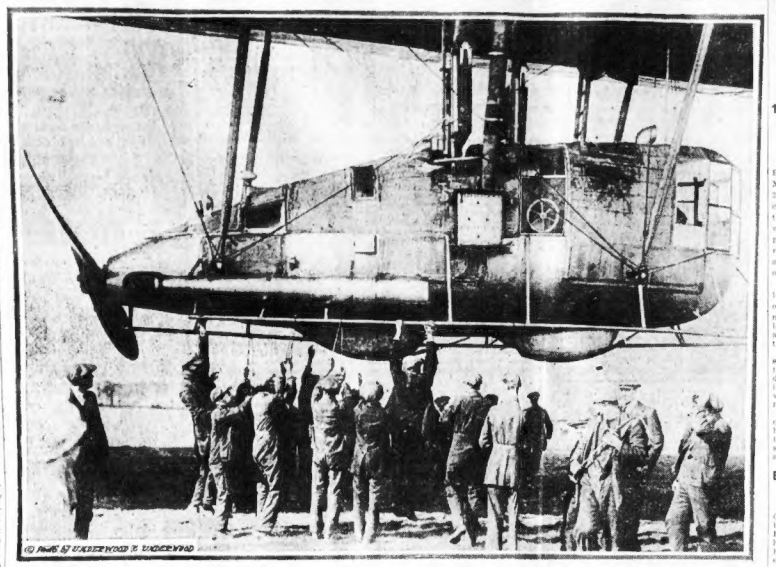
ONE OF THE "PUSHERS" ON THE BIG DIRIGIBLE R-34



The British flying machine has five units in her power plant, each of the same type as shown here. Each car is twenty-five feet long. They are connected by a long deck. If Germany accepts the Allies' terms the R-34 will staon her flight to New York. If Germany does not sign, the giant machine will become a part of the air and sea forces which will blkade Germany.

RECRUIT DROPS ARMY TO TAKE BRIDE

Uncle Sam lost a promising recruit in the Tremont Row recruiting office by a peculiar freak of fate, when James B. Wendell met a former sweetheart in Mrs. Ruth Proctor Fosdick of Centre street, Holyoke, and after a short chat decided that he had lost interest in the army, preferring to protect Mrs. Fosdick for life than government rights during his proposed enlistment.

Mr. Wendell was recently discharged from Camp Dix and his bride-to-be is a widow, her husband having been killed in the war. Both men had been suitors for her hand.

Mrs. Fosdick had come in to inquire of Major Elsey how best to trace a Liberty Bond which her husband, who was killed in April, 1918, at Cantigny, while serving with B Company, 26th Infantry, had bought while he was in the service, and which she had never received.

She brought with her a six-months-old child. Wendell, who served during the war as a truck driver on a rations wagon at Camp Fowler Down, England, and had not heard of the death of his former rival, had come in to enlist.

He had been examined and was following Major Elsey into the front office to sign his papers, when he recognized the woman in the waiting room. He stopped to shake hands, and then stopped a little longer, when he heard her story.

Five minutes later he marched in to the major and announced that he had reconsidered, since he had that minute acquired a dependent. Upon which, instead of taking the oath of a soldier, he received the recruiting officer's congratulations upon his decision to take the oath of a husband.

Commissioner in Luck; Only Single Man on Job

Topeka, Kan., June 20.—Robert Mcgiffert, City Commissioner, formerly Sergeant Mcgiffert, is "in luck," as he expresses it. He is the only unmarried City Commissioner in the City Hall and, in fact, about the only unmarried man in the whole building.

As a result there is either a box of candy or some flowers in both on his desk every morning when he gets down to work. There are a whole flock of girls at the City Hall, and they are delighted with the fact that there is one man to whom they can present flowers or candy without taking a chance of breaking up a happy home.

"It is a relief to have one unmarried man about," said a pretty blonde stenographer. "And I hear he is not even engaged. Not that it makes any difference, you know, but a young man is sort of nice to have about."

'LONELY WOMAN' ASKS CUPID FOR 'REAL MAN'

Los Angeles, June 20.—Seeking a "real" man not over forty-five with a spirit of "the eternal fly," Helen March Palmer, who described herself as a lonely woman, wrote to R. S. (Cupid) Sparks, Los Angeles city clerk, to find her an ending husband. The letter was received May 1.

"My dear Mr. Sparks," the letter began. "Do you know of a real man—honorable, cultivated as well situated, not over forty-five—who still retains the spirit of the eternal boy, who would be glad of the life companionship of a cultivated woman, fairly well educated, who longs for an artistic home? her own, is capable of maintaining same and can cook, if necessary, as fine a meal as anyone could desire?

"I'm tired to death of other women's homes. I'm tired of loneliness where no one cares. I want someone to care sufficiently to bring me flowers and candy, to take me out in his car.

"What is the need of going into details? I'm just human and desire the pleasure of home interest, the sense of protection, the freedom from the eternal bludgeoning of the outside world. It's not easy, if one is not favorably situated, to meet men of one's own class, therefore I am appealing to you."

Another lonely woman, apparently with supreme confidence in "Cupid" Sparks, leaves the selection up to him.

"I will leave it to your good judgement," she wrote, "as to the kind of a husband I want through life. If he is a good husband I surely will do my part to make him happy. I have no chance to go out to get acquainted as I have a small rooming house and a garden, and chickens to take care of.

Sparks was trying to match up the two applicants with a collection of prospective husbands which he has on hand.

ARLINGTON BOY MYSTERIOUSLY MISSING

12-Year Sidney Brooks Last Seen Leaving for School Wednesday Morning

The disappearance of Sidney Paul Brooks, the twelve-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Brooks of No. 20 Dow avenue, Arlington Heights, continues to puzzle his parents and the police, who have scarcely a clue with which to work. There is no apparent reason why the boy should run away. He was bright, happy and brilliant in the first year class of the Arlington Junior High School.

Sidney was last seen by his parents leaving home for school at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday morning. A playmate says he saw him about an hour later on a truck on Massachusetts avenue, Arlington Heights. Since then no trace of him has been found.

It is thought by his parents that some imaginary school trouble caused the boy to run away, although he seldom gave his teachers difficulty. Fear is felt that the boy may have met with some accident, but foul play is not suspected.

The lad is short and stout, dark complexioned, and has dark brown hair and eyes. He wore dark gray trousers, light gray coat, gray cap, soft collar and necktie and black high shoes and black stockings.

Why Pictorial Review is bought in preference to any other woman's magazine

PICTORIAL REVIEW leads all publications in supporting the interests of progressive women, and in advancing their social and political welfare.

In the way of Literature, you will find in Pictorial Review the writings of the most famous living Authors both here and abroad.

Booth Tarkington — Kathleen Norris
Sir Gilbert Parker — Arthur Stringer
Mary Roberts Rinehart
Edwina Stanton Babcock
Melville Davisson Post
Corra Harris — Stacy Aumonier
George Gibbs — Wilbur Daniel Steele

and others are regular contributors to our Magazine.

The best serial novels that money can buy are published in Pictorial Review in three or four issues, instead of running a few pages at a time and taking six months or a year to complete them.

Our short stories are the best published. Edward J. O'Brien, the noted Literary Critic, says that Pictorial Review publishes better short stories and more of them than any other popular magazine.

Then the beautiful color pages of famous personages and historic scenes—color cut-outs for children—our various Departments, including articles on Home Economy—Mother and Baby—Social, Civic and kindred Bureaus of Helpfulness, are not surpassed by any other publication.

But in addition to all these valuable features the most important in the minds of thousands of women, is the Fashion Section, published each month. Where is there a woman not interested in the latest Fashions, the newest styles? Pictorial Review publishes each month from 15 to 20 pages of the newest things in dress for women, misses and children—many of these pages in full color. The fact that forty million Pictorial Review patterns are sold each year is evidence of their popularity and leadership. No other magazine even attempts to compete with such a perfect Fashion Service.

A complete Fashion Section for women, misses and children comes with Pictorial Review every month, in which smart advance styles are shown. For each one of these designs a perfect-fitting Pictorial Review Pattern has been created, enabling you to make any garment look exactly like the design.

The best stores everywhere sell Pictorial Review Patterns.

In the July issue, now on sale, there are 17 pages of the best Fashions for Summer. This feature alone should prompt you to buy Pictorial Review for July.

If you live in the country or in any town where there is no newsdealer, we will enter your name on our list to receive Pictorial Review for the next six months—a special "getting acquainted" opportunity—for only One Dollar. During these six months Pictorial Review will contain:

Two Complete Novels, which, when published later in book form will cost $3. From Fifteen to Twenty-four Full Page Pictures in Colors to Frame. Twenty Complete Short Stories. Fourteen Special Articles. Eight Hundred Smart Styles. Six to Ten Pages of G. G. Drayton Cut-Outs for the Youngsters. Twelvetrees' Inimitable Kiddy Pictures. Household Hints. New Menus. Care of the Children.

Camel Cigarettes

CAMELS are as delightful to your taste as they are new. And, so satisfying that they meet every cigarette desire you ever have had.

Camels are unusual, in fact, they're unlike any cigarette you ever smoked. That's because they're an expert blend of choice Turkish and choice Domestic tobaccos, producing a quality that meets your taste as no other cigarette ever did.

Camels expert blend gives that mellow-mild-body and frees the cigarettes from any unpleasant cigaretty aftertaste or any unpleasant cigaretty odor. You can smoke Camels as liberally as you like without tiring your taste.

You have only to get personally acquainted with the expert Camel blend to know that you prefer it to either kind of tobacco smoked straight!

For your own satisfaction compare Camels with any cigarette in the world at any price!

The Emerson Shoe

HONEST ALL THROUGH

WHILE STANDING IN FRONT OF ONE OF MY STORES recently, a well known shoe manufacturer said to me,—

"Emerson, why don't you mark up the retail price of your shoes somewhere near the present price of leather. You are selling shoes in your store today at retail cheaper than I can sell them at wholesale."

He was right about the price because leather has gone up about 60% since our present stock of shoes was made.

But I have always given my customers any saving I can make for them as a result of my long experience in knowing when to buy leather.

So I brand a fair and square retail price on the sole of my store shoes, during the process of manufacture—based on actual factory costs. And once stamped the price cannot be raised as it can be on a pen and ink price ticket.

An investment in Emerson Shoes today for your needs for the next six months will pay you 25% on your money.

Visit our store—inspect our shoes—compare our prices and values with those of other manufacturers and judge for yourself. This is your opportunity as long as our present stock lasts.

"TO ENTERTAIN AND ENLIGHTEN"

The object of Hearst's is to entertain and enlighten. Through all its entertainment, however, runs a certain serious purpose—a definite mission. And that mission is to discuss, elucidate and solve—so far as is possible—the vital questions of home, family and public life that people everywhere are themselves considering and discussing.

"Spiritualism is the one biggest thing that has come into the world," writes Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, the great English author. "Consciously or unconsciously, the hearts of all the bereaved mothers and wives are crying for it." In Hearst's for July, see "The Body and the Spiritual Body" by Sir ARTHUR CONAN DOYLE.

Can any real man from God's own open country loiter about New York City without corroding his very soul? That is the theme of a masterly novel by ARTHUR STRINGER now running in Hearst's. Competent critics pronounce "This Light Must Live" the best serial now in any magazine.

The magic of the Sheikhs El Djebel—the Eight Castles and the 50,000 Hassanis in white turbans and white robes—all are known to Tressa Norne, the blue-eyed American girl. See in Hearst's for July "The Slayer of Souls," a new series of stories by ROBERT W. CHAMBERS.

"I don't say I discovered Ole Hanson," writes K. C. B. in his Hearst's article, "but I came as near it as anybody. Anyway, my rubbers were hidden in his office closet all the time—" See what Ole Hanson himself has to say on "Opportunity," in Hearst's for July.

IF YOU are not interested in a magazine a bit beyond the ordinary—if you don't particularly care for a magazine that will make you think—you won't want Hearst's this month or any other. But if you want the works of the world's great writers; if you want the words of the world's real leaders; if you want the thoughts of the world's great thinkers; don't fail to make sure each month—starting today with July—of your regular copy of

PAINTINGS WERE FAKES, SAYS RICH BUYER

Sues Collector for Money Paid for Alleged Rubens and Van Dyke

New York, June 20.—Jackson Johnson, millionaire shoe manufacturer of St. Louis, claims that two bogus paintings were sold to him as a "Rubens" and a "Van Dyke." He is now suing Professor Ellie Volpi of Florence, Italy, for $11,000, alleging that the two paintings are worth only $200, but would be worth at least $12,000 if genuine.

The fact that Johnson is the real party at interest became known when he filed his testimony before trial. He did this to prove that he and not Arthur C. Spense, the nominal plaintiff, is the party entitled to any money recovered from Professor Volpi. No one has been able to find Spense since he was drafted into the american army last year.

In telling why he chose to have Spense bring the suit for him, the St. Louis manufacturer said:

"I assigned my claim in blank to the person in whose name the suit was brought, because I didn't want to get the advertising and notoriety I knew I would gain here. Even an amateur does not like to pose as a fool, you know. My attorney simply got a dummy plaintiff and, if anything is recovered, it goes to me, if there is anything left."

WAS RECORD SALE.

The pictures Johnson bought were part of the celebrated Volpi collection, from the Davanzanti palace and the Villa Fila del Florence, sold here in November, 1916. Art collectors from all over the world attended the sale.

The pictures brought $544,192. The sale was the fourth in monetary value of any held in this country, was surpassed only by the Yerkes sale in 1910, bringing $2,262,666; the M. C. D. Borden sale in 1912 aggregating $1,608,256, and the Mary Morgan sale in 1886, amounting to $1,245,000.

Among the purchases of Titians from the Volpi sale were Joseph E. Widener, Henry C. Frick, Otto H. Kahn, the Metropolitan Museum of Art and the Rhode Island School of Design.

Professor Volpi made it his life work to collect the celebrated paintings. He purchased the Davanzanti palace as a home for them. When the war broke out he tendered the palace to the Italian government and brought the pictures here for sale.

In his testimony before the trial Johnson said the Volpi sale was the first art sale he had ever attended. In 1915 his home had burned and a small collection of paintings had gone up in smoke. At the time of the sale he was only one old master—Lawrence. He thought the Volpi sale offered a chance to collect some old masters to grace his St. Louis gallery.

"Did you qualify as an expert?" he was asked. He replied:

"No, I did not and do not. I had been collecting about ten years. I attended the sale with Martin Hofer as my adviser, and after I had decided on the supposed Rubens and Van Dyke he gave me a limit on what he thought was the worth of the pictures, and they sold under that limit."

EXPERTS CLAIM FRAUD.

Johnson bid in "Augustin Lomineill," described as a Van Dyke, and "Carolus de Mallery," described as a Rubens, for $8,400. When asked how it was he came to question the genuineness of the paintings, Johnson testified:

"My suspicions were first aroused when I called in the director of the museum in St. Louis. He didn't think they were genuine, but was not positive. I then sent them back to Mr. Hofer and asked him to have the best talent in the country examine them. I was satisfied when I got their views that the pictures were not genuine."

Caesar A. Guglielmetti, representative of Professor Volpi in this city, has announced that suit will be a fight to the finish over the pictures.

SALVATION ARMY HOTEL QUITS WITH "DRY" DAYS

Omaha, Neb., June 20.—The Salvation Army Hotel has gone out of existence May 1, after more than twenty years of existence on South Tenth street, and Adjutant and Mrs. Dodd who have been here for years, say that during the twenty years they have furnished 250,000 beds, have given thousands of men jobs and aided them in other ways. The hotel for the past year has not been so well patronized, due to prohibition in Nebraska, so "Mother" Dodd says. The owners have decided to remodel, and asked the Salvation Army a higher rate than they could afford to pay.

PRINCE OF WALES WAS REALLY "TOO ECONOMIC"

London, June 20.—The Prince of Wales carried the economy idea too far to suit the money barons of the city.

He asked that the gold casket containing the certificate of his grant of the freedom of the city of London be omitted and the document finished unostentatiously.

A prince's wish must be obeyed, but the money barons have decided that, as the casket is already designed, it will be held as a container for the city's good wishes when the prince marries, figuring that he can't very well refuse the casket then.

HOOSIER POLICE FIRE ON "THIEF"—IT WAS A RAT

Indianapolis, Ind., June 20.—A pedestrian passing the Gayety Theatre heard a noise in the basement and called the police. Two "fly cops" were sent to the theater "lookout." Stealthily entering the dark cellar of the playhouse the two policemen listened. Then came a rasping noise like that made by a file. Both patrolmen fired. There was a squeal, then silence. Throwing their flashlights on their quarry they found the burglar was a rat.

"Booze Auto" Captured

Charleston, W. Va., June 20.—West Virginia has made its first capture of a "booze auto." Two Charleston men were arrested and the machine was confiscated. Thirty-one pints was its cargo. The car was owned by a local taxicab company.

RAPS FASHIONS AS UNHEALTHY AND INDECENT

Why Display Shields and Bow-legs, Asks Illinois University Health Bulletin

Urbana, Ill., June 20.—Miss Fashion, those thin waists that exhibit your dress shields and—er—underwear, are not decent, and laws should be enacted for dress reform, says a circular issued by the University of Illinois today.

Under the caption, "Fashion — Its Use and Abuse," the circular assails present tendencies in dress and "fashion that knows no pain."

Leona Hope is author of the circular, which was printed by the College of Agriculture's home economics department.

REVEAL BOWLEGS.

In the frank discussion of "bow-legged girls, with enlarged big-toe joints," the circular gave students varying degrees of shocks and thrills.

On the subject of decency in dress the pamphlet says:

"Decency—Decency is also a fundamental in dress. Waists so thin that a woman must shave in order to wear them are not decent. Skirts so tight that they reveal rather than conceal the figure have been worn recently and are about to return.

"Evening dresses described in our prominent fashion magazines as not having much above the waist and very little below, are not rare. Sumptuary laws were enacted in the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries which permitted only people of very high rank to wear indecently short skirts and coats.

WHY THIS DISPLAY?

"Furthermore, why should one desire to show her dress shields and underwear to the public. Artists advise students to go to nature. The advice might be followed in regard to clothes."

The university's advice on dress reads:

"Economic Value of Dress—Clothes are what financiers call a 'good risk.' They give self-reliance. To be successful, appear successful. The woman who works must be well dressed if she is to measure her full capacity for success. Women have been criticised for spending too much thought on dress. The politician should be that women do not spend enough intelligent thought on dress. To understand the art of good dressing shows wisdom, not vanity."

SCORES THIN STOCKINGS.

"Fashion" then comes in for this scoring:

"That the function of dress is not limited to protection and modesty is very evident. Witness the devotees of the Godess Fashion going about the streets cold, rainy days in thin silk stockings and equally thin slippers, enduring for her sake all the discomforts of wet feet and attendant evils. Pity for the pretty young girl in immense white furs sipping iced soda in a drug booth on a hot day is wasted. Fashion knows no pain.

MOTHERS TO BLAME.

"Remedies for Evils of Fashion—We can not escape from clothes, but we may escape from fashion. There are those who think that the remedy for the evils attendant on constantly changing fashions is to adopt a standardized dress; others advocate uniforms for women. Some have gone so far as to suggest a national costume. Futile suggestion! It is not national costume which we need so much as fine national taste.

"Standardized dress will never be popular. Women are too fond of indulging their love of pretty things.

"The period of girlhood being so short it is a pity that young girls do not appreciate what a wonderful and beautiful thing it is and desire to prolong rather than to shorten it by prematurely appearing as full-fledged society women. Mothers are to blame for this. They should advise, restrain and guide their daughters in the selection of clothes to a greater degree than is customary at present.

SHOES DISTORT TOES.

"Not only are many young girls robbed of their girlhood, but the seeds of ill health and deformity of later years are frequently sown during this period. I may safely say that one-half of the number of girls in my classes have hopelessly enlarged big toe joints due to the shoes that were worn by them during the years which have been so fashionable.

"Again, many of the girls appear to be bowlegged. This is because the leg which should be at right angles to the foot and vertical in position necessarily retains its relation to the foot, but is obliged in doing so to assume a slant position on account of the silted heel."

UNINJURED IN ARGONNE, BUT KILLED BY A TRAIN

Junction City, Kan., June 20.—To go through the Argonne fighting last September without a scratch, only to be killed, anyway, days later in a railroad accident, was the fate of three Junction City soldiers, according to comrades arriving here. The three, Edwin Hewitt, C. R. Snell and L. W. Case, started to the rear after the battle. They got into a box car standing on the track which they took to be a side track. It was the main track, however, and a train crashed into the car, killing the three.

BROTHERS MEET AFTER 37 YEARS OF SEPARATION

Wichita, Kan., June 20.—Two brothers, John and Edward Fitch, both veterans of the Civil War, who had not seen each other for more than thirty-seven years, met here for the first time during the recent G. A. R. encampment. Both enlisted in Iowa regiments. John with the 31st Iowa Infantry and Edward in Troop C, 1st Iowa Cavalry.

In 1882 the men parted, John going to Oklahoma and later removing here. Edward went to South Dakota, where he prospered.

War Heroes Arrest Police

Clarksburg, W. Va., June 20.—Returned soldiers and sailors took the law in their own hands when a number of railroad policemen refused to allow the citizens of Weston, near here, to inspect a baby war tank and, it is alleged, fired shots at the people. The soldiers seized the policemen, disarmed them and marched them to jail.

PRAYS GOD FOR BUYER, SAYS WRONG MAN CAME

Chehalis, Wash., June 20.—"One night I prayed God to send a buyer for the farm," says Mrs. Dorothy Ann Mawson, in her suit here against F. T. Hamshaw and others, to set aside transfer of land. "Then Hamshaw came next day and I sold him the farm for $1 and some shares of stock in a tractor company."

Mrs. Mawson says she now knows that "God didn't send Hamshaw" and asks that the land be returned to her, she claims the tractor stock is valueless.

FAVOR NATIONALIZATION OF BRITISH COAL MINES

London, June 20.—The Daily News forecasts that the report of the coal commission is now ready for issue and will favor the nationalization of the coal mines of Great Britain.

300 ROXBURY MACHINISTS STRIKE FOR RECOGNITION

As a result of an alleged failure on the part of the management to recognize the union and grant a forty-four-hour week with increased wages, more than 300 machinists, pipe and wrench cutters, employed at the Tremont Manufacturing Company, Amory street, Roxbury, are on strike. The men are members of Boston Local 265, International Association of Machinists.

Savings Bank Depositors' Bill Amended

Already the Initiative and Referendum has begun to operate as the American predicted it would operate in most cases as a potential power, having its influence not by its direct exercise, but by fear of it.

Many times during the fierce contest over the Initiative and the Referendum the opponents resorted to the argument that the Initiative and Referendum would be used in every conceivable way, cumbering up the ballot, confusing the voters and burdening them with the labor of legislation beyond their disposition to investigate and deliberate and in the minds of the reactionaries who opposed the Initiative and Referendum, beyond the voter's capacity to legislate.

The American frequently answered that argument by citing what the chief of police of Cambridge once told to a representative of the American about a certain police officer. The chief was asked who was the best officer on the night force, and he indicated a certain man. His inquirer said, "Why, that officer makes very few arrests." To which the chief replied: "That is just the point. The best officer is the man who so impresses the community he is guarding as to keep trouble away and to avoid the occasion of making arrests. The best officer is the man whom every evil disposed person on his beat knows is a man who will not be trifled with, and he is very likely to be the man who in the long run makes the fewest arrests."

So the American argued that the Initiative and Referendum would operate. The corporation lobby and the lobbies of other special interests would go into decline, because their employers would appreciate that with the Initiative and Referendum they had not won their case when they obtained a control of the Legislature by the regulation, old-fashioned methods, and, therefore, there would be less flagrant attempts to control legislation and to obtain bad laws, or to prevent the passage of good laws when it is known that those interested in the passage of a good law and in the defeat of a bad law could always go over the head of the Legislature to the people. Thus it would come to pass that the Initiative and Referendum would have to be infrequently exercised, yet it would be working all the time potentially.

So it has happened this last week. Our readers will recall that the Legislature strangely passed a law prohibiting savings banks from paying interest every month. The title of the bill was so misleading that most of the members of the Legislature believed that the law was intended to allow the savings banks to pay interest every month, rather than to deny the right which they already had. This law wronged the savings bank depositors. Those who recognized the evil in it started a petition for a referendum on it to the people, and in the face of that petition the advocates of the law, THE VERY YEAR THAT IT PASSED, have consented to an amendment of the law taking the evil out of it. Thus the State will be spared the evil effects of this legislation because the Initiative and Referendum power just existed. It did not have to be evoked.

Nothing Too Good for the Soldier

The war has taught the big American public that nothing is too good for a soldier.

In the heart of the public there is the deepest appreciation of what the soldier has done for America, not only in beating Germany, but in crystalizing the patriotic consciousness of all classes of people.

The uniform of Uncle Sam is a social certificate. In any place where American soldiers are found—public meeting places, ships, trains, in hotels, on the streets—they are found to be uniformly courteous, dignified and self-respecting. In other words, the morale of the army is not only a fighting morale, it is a social and ethical morale.

It seems as if the man who dons the uniform instinctively squares his shoulders, lifts his chin and looks everyone straight in the eye. He immediately realizes that he has the whole United States Government behind him, and becomes personally responsible for the upholding of its prestige and dignity.

The attitude of the Government and of the War Department toward the soldier is calculated to justify this state of mind. Uncle Sam is making the business of the soldier a preparatory period in the young man's life during which he is making ready for a successful civilian career.

First, his health is looked after, because the healthy man has a firm physical foundation on which to build success. Next, it provides opportunities for the soldier to educate himself in some useful, necessary occupation or trade, and this training is the business asset from which he gains his start in industry.

Thousands of people will read the recruiting advertisements who have no intention of enlisting. Men too young or too old, fathers, mothers, children, everyone, in fact, will learn something of value when they comprehend the "message" conveyed through the advertising columns of hundreds of newspapers.

The popular idea of a soldier as a man who enlists, drills, fights if need be, and then obtains his discharge will give way to the knowledge that the peace-time soldier of Uncle Sam is a student in a great university for man-building.

It is a good thing for the army to have the public informed in this respect. It is a great thing for the public to be so informed. When the man in the street says, "We have the finest army in the world," he will mean a great deal more than the mere fact that we have a well organized body of fighting men to defend us. He will mean that we have an army made up of the choicest manhood, and that this manhood is in process of constant development.

Nothing is too good for the soldier—and this means not only food, clothing, lodging and entertainment, but ideals and standards. The wearer of Uncle Sam's uniform is the object of universal respect not alone because of what he does, but because of what he is.

Give Them Six Months' Pay, Too

By K. C. B.

WE NEVER did mind.
A COUPLE of mice.
BUT FIVE or six of them.
GET ON our nerves.
AND WE tried to catch them,
WITH A little store trap.
BUT WE couldn't do it.
AND A village woman.
WHOM I met at the store
SAID SHE had a cat.
AND SHE'D loan it to us.
AND FIRST she warned us.
IT WAS a very wild cat.
AND DIDN'T live in the house.
BECAUSE SHE didn't like cats.
AND IT wasn't a pet.
AND TO not feed it much.
AND SHE'D crate it up.
AND GET the grocery boy.
TO DELIVER it to us.
AND SHE did all that.
AND WE opened the crate.
AND THE cat sneaked out.
AND LOOKED all around.
AND RAN up the stairs.
AND THROUGH all the rooms.
AND DOWNSTAIRS again.
AND WENT under the couch.
AND WE couldn't get it out.
AND MY wife suggested.
WE GET something to eat.
AND TRY and coax it out.
AND WE did that.
AND PUT it in a saucer,
ALONGSIDE OF the couch.
AND THE cat came out,
AND KEPT watching us.
WHILE IT ate all the meat
AND WENT back again.
AND DIDN'T come out.
UNTIL NEARLY dark,
AND WE fed it again.
AND A few hours later.
IT WAS raining outside.
AND THE air was cold.
AND INSIDE the house.
THE LIGHTS were all burning.
AND I'D lighted a fire.
IN THE big fireplace.
AND THE cat came out
AND WAS nosing around.
AND A little at a time.
IT CAME over our way.
AND AFTER a while,
IT LET us pet it.
AND IN another little while.
IT WAS in my wife's lap.
AND THAT'S four days ago.
AND IT hasn't caught any mice.
AND WE can't sit down.
WITHOUT IT climbing in our laps.
AND I'VE just been thinking,
THAT IT isn't much different,
FROM A lot of little children,
WHO GROW very wild.
BECAUSE NOBODY loves them,
AND THEN right away.
WHEN SOMEBODY loves them,
THEY GROW very tame.
AND CLIMB up in your lap.
AND ENCIRCLE your neck,
WITH THEIR two little arms,
AND, ANYWAY,
WE'VE RUINED the lady's cat.
IT AIN'T wild any more.

I THANK you.

The Frog Pond

By Morton Birge

THE ACID TEST

She shook with terror if a mouse was ever seen around the house;
She fairly threw conniption fits if anything caught fire;
At the remotest lightning stroke her shrieks the neighborhood woke;
She wouldn't try a stairway dark for anybody's hire.
But, 'spite of all her wail and moan, she had a courage all her own;
She had the nerve to do one thing which many women lack.
At parties she defied the worst; she dared to say her "Good-by" first,
And blithely beat it home while others talked behind her back.

GOES ON FOREVER

The United States postal censorship will be discontinued tomorrow. But domestic censorship of any letters which a woman finds in her husband's pockets will continue its joyful way.

GOOD MORNING, DOCTOR COOLIDGE

At the recent convention of the Massachusetts Medical Society suggestion was made by Dr. Samuel Woodward of Worcester, the retiring president, that doctors should hold political office. Amherst College may be considered as approaching the same end from the other direction by making Governor Calvin Coolidge a Doctor—of Laws.

DEMIJOHN FOR "APPLE JACK"

Business is running at top speed at a cider mill in the town of Harvard, just outside Camp Devens. Men bring barrels, half-barrels, demijohns, jugs and other containers and take all the mill can produce. The farmers are stocking up for the great adventure in the coming Sahara.

HEAR HIM SQUEAL

Give the dentists the medal for "movie" thrillers. The drilling delegates to the dental convention at Swampscott were entertained at an evening gathering by a motion picture showing the treatment a patient receives while having teeth pulled out. On the same cheerful principle a medical convention could be edified by a film showing a gentleman having his appendix removed. And think of the possibilities for incidental music, especially in that dental film if the patient suffers it without gas.

APPETIZING

Speaking of dentists and their teeth-extracting "movie" film, did you ever hear of the undertaker whose wife sued for separation on the ground that he insisted on talking "shop" at meal times?

ANSWER DUE JULY 1

The real Nine Days' Wonder is coming Sunday—nine days of wondering by many persons what they are going to do after prohibition hits 'em.

LIFE HAS SOME JOY FOR ALL OF US

Get away from the idea that your life is merely one of sleeping, eating and working.

You may look upon yourself as a mere machine, but if you have actually reached this stage you have become hopeless, with nothing but a drab existence ahead of you and no real enjoyment in life as you go along.

Now your lot is no worse than the other fellow's.

Every man has to work.

Every man has his troubles.

Every man has to dig a little harder and a little deeper each day to keep from going under in the mad whirl of existence.

You may be crippled physically, but the man next door may be crippled mentally—and that is worse.

If you are in condition so that hard work is possible for you, you can count yourself as lucky—dead lucky, old man.

Don't waste time pitying yourself; be glad that you can be on the job.

SPEAKING OF VANITY, HOW ABOUT THE MEN?

By Winifred Black

FASHION shows for men—that's the latest fad. And a nice lively, wide awake, sensible fad it is, too. Why not?

Why shouldn't men go somewhere and find out what to wear and when to wear it, just as women do?

They massage their faces, and wear powder, and diet for the sake of their figure, and put brilliantine on their hair, and wear clothes that were designed for boys when they're past forty—oh, yes, you do, gentlemen, you know you do, and we all know you do it, too—and why shouldn't you, if you feel like it?

Vanity—men less vain than women? Run away, child! Who ever got any such ideas as that into your head?

Women act more vain than men when it comes to clothes, but as far as real, deep, dyed-in-the-wool, ineradicable, irrefutable, unchanged and unchanging vanity goes, a man can give a woman all the trumps in his hand and take every trick on the table.

How many women fifty years old do you know who imagine they can make a boy of twenty fall desperately in love with them?

How many men of fifty do you know who would be at all surprised if you told every one of them that the Venus de Milo was uncomfortable on her pedestal because he didn't come and make love to her?

I never saw a man so old, or so ugly, or so poor, or such a failure that he didn't think it possible for the prettiest, sweetest, cleverest and richest woman in the world to fall in love with him.

Men Also Are Vain

Masculine vanity—any girl who works in any kind of an office can tell you a few things about that. Men are twice as vain as women. An ugly woman knows that she is ugly. An ugly man will believe he's an Adonis if the silliest little girl in the world makes eyes at him just to get him to buy her a box of candy or a bunch of violets.

Men are vain of business ability, vain of their looks, vain of the way they manage this deal, or mismanage that one.

They are vain of their mistakes, and vain of their weaknesses.

A perfectly intelligent man will sit up and tell you that he's a brute when he's drinking and expect you to admire him for it.

A careless, improvident, selfish wastrel will brag that he never really earned his living in his life and never had to, and will not have the faintest idea that you don't admire him deeply for what he's saying.

A man will have a good wife, fine children and a thriving business and let himself be jockeyed out of them all by some astute little creature who sees his weaknesses and plays upon them, as the man in the orchestra plays upon the flute.

Vanity of vanities; all is vanity, saith the Preacher.

Vain—men vain?

Why, the average woman lives and moves and has her being just by catering to the vanity of some man.

Women "Work on" Vanity

She spends her life making big eyes and sighing;

"Oh, how brave and big and strong you are! What should I ever do without you to help me?"

And the beauty of it all is that vanity is, after all, only the other side of pride. And pride is one of the noblest attributes of the human heart.

Make a man proud of you and he'll be proud of himself, and when a man is proud of himself there isn't very much that he can't and won't do for himself and for those dependent upon him.

JUST LIKE ROMANCE IN THE "MOVIES"

Romance? Everybody loves it! and here's a real one, that reads just a "movie" scenario! The hero is the grandson of a multi-millionaire who goes to work in one of the family factories to learn the business. There he meets a pretty girl—it is "love at first sight." The stern parents frown—refuse to be reconciled; the young pair elope—and at last there is an accident which results in everybody's being happy "ever after." All about it, in the next

Hail, Grand Fleet
No Revolution Yet
But Look Out for Its Seed

—By Arthur Brisbane—

(Copyright, 1919.)

No more daylight saving after this year. The farmers didn't want it. Union workmen said it represented an effort to get more work out of them; just why is not clear, since their hours of labor are definitely limited.

The clock goes back an hour on October 26 and stays back. One set of young men will gratefully stay in bed one hour later in the morning. Another set of young men will get up an hour earlier, anyhow, to begin living and working an hour sooner. Congress did not forbid that.

The second set of young men will inherit the earth and the first set staying abed later will be the grumbling clocks of the second set. Thus the sheep are selected from the goats.

Will Germany sign? France, England, Italy and Wall Street would be much obliged if you would answer that question. The British grand fleet is on a war footing. The British battleships are ready if the Germans refuse. This time there are no German battleships to meet them. The British "grand fleet" will have plain sailing.

The great British flying ship that was to come across the ocean is kept on the other side, and has been flying over Berlin, without interference, to let the Germans know what may be expected if peace as prepared by the Allies is not accepted.

If Germany does not sign, the world will see a new kind of war, not pleasant for attackers or defenders.

If the Germans are sufficiently desperate to refuse to sign, what will happen? How much of killing will be done by battleships and flying machines? Just what can the Allies do to a nation of sixty millions if it does not defend itself and simply offers placid resistance?

While England has flying machines patrolling the air above and near Berlin, the United States has flying machines patrolling the borders of Mexico.

Mexicans want to know why the United States sent troops into Mexico after shots across the border had killed six Americans. Americans wonder not why the troops were sent in, but why they were called out. If it is desirable to keep an American army of occupation on German soil because Germans may possibly do something more to Europe, why not have an army of occupation in Mexico where the genial but excited Villa brigands are actually shooting across and killing Americans now?

The Attorney-General is said to know the day when the "Reds" will attempt an actual revolution. The government, with an appropriation of two millions and extensive police preparations, is getting ready for the effort—perhaps on July 4th.

Whoever chooses can throw a dynamite bomb or shoot bullets. Between that performance and causing a revolution is a great difference. The famous Seven Tailors of Tooley street began their proclamation "We, the People of England." They were not the people of England, and those that discuss revolutions in the United States at present, advertise it and fix a date for it are not the people of the United States. A revolution comes suddenly. It happens, like an attack of measles or smallpox. It is not prepared or advertised in advance.

The police may be busy on July 4 and other days. There may be more or less successful attempts at individual murder in the United States but there isn't going to be any revolution. To make a wheel revolve you must make the whole wheel turn, to have a revolution in a nation you must make the whole nation turn.

The danger to this country is not in the dissatisfaction of the day, but in causes for further disturbances and future false thinking that exist today.

Dr. Copeland, health officer of New York, said on Wednesday night: "There are one million school children in the city of New York and two hundred thousand of them are under-nourished."

There is more danger in that statement than in a thousand bombs, or a thousand foolish anarchist speeches.

Strange that a nation that advertises its desire to sell ten million pounds of meat and other foods "left over from the war" should allow two hundred thousand children in one city to be permanently undersized, thus befriending up two hundred thousand ill-nourished, misshapen brains.

A twisted brain is a good deal more dangerous than dynamite.
